From The Servant's Quarters

•While I was at the St. John Vianney Center two years ago, outside of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, I had the chance to attend a Quaker Service. It was quite different from our Catholic liturgy. Before the service I joined the community for a coffee hour and a bit of Christian Formation. I introduced myself to one of the gentlemen present and said I was a Catholic Priest. His response was, "I used to be Catholic." Then he said, "I guess I still am. But I started attending the Quaker Service after the tragedy of 911. I was very disappointed in the Catholic Church response to the destruction of the World Trade Center."

•This person felt there needed to be a stronger voice for a non-violent response to the horror of the attack. The Quakers are traditionally pacifist.

•As we once again commemorate the tremendous loss of life this weekend, might we ask ourselves if a less violent response to this horrific attack might do a better job in making the world a safer place? I'm sure to many this sounds rather naïve. But it seems to me that responding to violence with violence has only escalated terrorism in the world.

•I believe people of the Gospel need to put pressure on public and political leaders to fine more creative and effective ways to decrease the violence and destruction in the world. We have often heard the lament, "If we can put a man on the moon, why can't we do "such and such?" The world is full of extremely intelligent and resourceful people. We need to identify them. We need to encourage them and support them to find better approaches to meeting the challenges of a violent world.

•Last Sunday Mother Theresa was canonized a saint in Rome for her lifetime work of compassion and healing for the poorest of the poor. Some years ago she received the Nobel Prize for Peace. In a very simple and yet profound way St. Theresa of Calcutta helped to make the world more reflective of the mercy and compassion of The Creator.

•My brother Brian and his wife Mary Beth live in Rochester, Minnesota. They both sing in the Rochester Community Choir. This weekend their choir is performing in commemoration of the 911 event. I have not seen Brian and Mary Beth since my Dad died two years ago. I am attending their concert this weekend with the hope of finding added inspiration to find ways to further the cause of peace and non-violence in our world.

•Bumper sticker: When the power of love overcomes the love of power, there will be peace in the world.

•Baptist Church Sign: God's Garden – Lettuce be kind. Squash gossip. Turnip for church.

•Presbyterian Church Sign: Pessimists need a good kick in the cants.

Messages from our PA

- Last week I wrote about the practice of daily Scripture reading as a way to personally strengthen one's self against the pervasiveness of secularism. The secular culture will interpret cultural values to fit their worldview. Another manifestation of that is the reinterpretation of the American Bill of Rights to move away from the original understanding of our right to Freedom OF Religion to a skewed message of Freedom FROM Religion. The effect is that ordinary Christians are discouraged from public displays of faith in the face of cultural attacks. The government itself has initiated laws which cross the lines of religious freedom. All Christians and all Catholics must embrace the goodness of their faith in Christ and decide to be willing to express and display that faith without shame or hesitation. We should be able to freely act out in our public lives what we exclaim in the Mass: "We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again!"
- After the recent violence in the Sherman Park area of Milwaukee, my wife and I attended the Mass for Peace at All Saints Parish. Since then, Fr. Tim Kitzke, the archdiocesan Vicar for Urban Ministry issued a letter with the following excerpt: "Let's put our hearts and our heads and our minds together that we can begin the work needed together. Thanks be to God for the rich tradition in social teaching our church has given to us. Now, everyone, let's get to work…One resource that our social teaching gives us is the important reminder of the "both/and" approach. To quote Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Catholicism, somewhat simplistically, has always been considered the religion of the great "et et" {both-and}: not of great forms of exclusivism but of synthesis." In other words, to quote Fr. Stiefvater's homily, we need to be bridge builders because it is not black or white, rich or poor, city or suburb, but both black and white, both rich and poor, both city and suburb. Our work needs to be both short and long term. It needs to be both individual and community-based." This call to action has prompted me to wonder how we can deepen and strengthen our relationship with our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres. I would be interested in hearing others ideas about that…
- Season of Prayer and Action for Creation: September 1 was proclaimed as the World Day of Prayer for Creation by the Orthodox Church in 1989, and many other Christian churches have joined since then, with Pope Francis most recently in 2015, and now extended to be a month-long Season of Creation, ending on October 4 - the Feast of St. Francis. Many priests and bishops are still not aware about the World Day of Prayer for Creation: Pope Francis officially instituted this celebration in 2015 for the Catholic Church, but it takes time to get our global family of 1.2 billion Catholics to learn about it and start celebrating it. So that's where WE come in. If many in our parish are unaware of this important celebration, God counts on us to let them know.
- So what can we do during the Season of Creation?
  Prayer – Include a prayer for creation and change in our daily prayer and parish prayer.
  Video – View Pope Francis's video on the Season of Creation. Ask for the video to be placed on our parish website and face book page.
  Awareness - Consider creating more parish awareness.
  Reduce our carbon footprint during the Season of Creation, then see if we can continue to make it a habit.
  Involvement - Join the Global Catholic Climate Movement.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

ATTENTION!! - Engaged Couples at St. James - SAVE THE DATE - OCTOBER 1, 2016

On Saturday October 1, 2016, at the 4:30 pm Mass, St. James will have a blessing for all those to be married in 2016 and also couples getting married in 2017. Please bring anyone with you, parents, your bridal party, friends or relatives to share this celebration with you.

There will be refreshments after Mass in the gathering space. Please mark this date. There will be couples to greet you as you come into Church.

For more information and to RSVP, please call John or Louise Vos 262-439-8559 or email – loujon@email.com

Moms of St James...give your families the GREATEST gift you can give...your prayers!

Hi! My name is Kim Boho and I am the mom of 3 teen/young adult men and I have to tell you, I don't know how I'd get through these years without my faith and prayer! That's why I decided to start the "Mary, Moms and Muffins" Rosary Group at our parish...to give moms a little time to come together and PRAY! To pray for those we love most, for those most in need in our lives and most importantly to ask God for His guidance, wisdom and grace.

Our small group has been meeting once a month for well over a year and after taking the summer off, we will begin coming together for prayer again Saturday, Sept 17th at 7am in the Great Room at church (please note new location). I encourage moms of ALL ages to join us! But especially for moms with school-age children, as the routines of the new school year begin, this is a great way to set aside some time just for you and God. Even if you've never prayed the Rosary before or its been many years, don't worry...we provide a great cheat sheet that we all use! Give yourself this hour and allow Mary, our perfect Mother, to help you grow closer to Christ and grow in your faith as a Christian mother...OUR FAMILIES NEED US TO PRAY! Feel free to bring along a friend from another parish, the more the Mary-er (ha!...I know, bad joke!)

God bless you and your families as you embark on a new school year. I hope to see you on the 17th!

A note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

Often times medications, such as Prilosec or Nexium (PPIs), are prescribed as a way to stop heartburn in its tracks, but you can also try some non-medication tricks to decrease the severity of heartburn. Of course, you should follow your doctor's recommendations, but utilizing the following tips may keep your medication needs to a minimum.

- Maintain a healthy weight-Your extra pounds put pressure on your abdomen, which causes the acid in your stomach to back up into your esophagus.
- Eat smaller meals-When you overeat at a meal, it puts extra pressure on the muscle that keeps food from backing up from the stomach to the esophagus.
- Avoid trigger foods-Common foods that increase stomach acid includes: fatty or fried foods, alcohol, caffeine, chocolate, and peppermint.
- Don't lie down after eating-Eat your last meal of the day 3 to 4 hours before you go to the bed.
- Elevate the head of your bed-Put sturdy blocks under the head of your bed to raise it 6 to 8 inches, or try a foam block between your mattress and box spring. Don't use too many pillows; however, this can put too much pressure on your stomach.
- Don't smoke-Smoking decreases the functional ability of the muscle that keeps food from backing up from your stomach into your esophagus.

LOOKING FOR NEW CATHOLICS…

Do you know someone who is on the verge of taking a deeper step into their faith?—or someone who has never had a significant opportunity to explore their beliefs about God, Jesus, faith, or church?—or someone who seems curious about or drawn to the Catholic church and just needs a friendly nudge? The Catholic church has a process called the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) and it may be just what this person needs at this point in their life…

- This process is for adults who have not been baptized and want to explore learning more about Jesus Christ and the Catholic church; or for adults baptized in another Christian denomination, but who may now be interested in being accepted and confirmed into the Catholic church; or
- Adults who are baptized Catholics, but have not completed their full initiation into the Catholic church and still need to celebrate the sacraments of 1st Eucharist and Confirmation.
- If you or someone you know is interested in learning more, please contact Gerry Wolf, Pastoral Associate, at 262-253-2213 or at wolfg@archmil.org; or Sue Devine-Simon, Director of Christian Formation, at 262-253-2904 or at devinesimons@archmil.org, for more details.

St. James is here to help all people experience meaning and purpose in life.

School is just around the corner and so are Christian Formation classes…

School started on September 1, and Christian Formation classes start on September 11 for families in the GIFT program, and September 18/20 for those in the traditional program. If you have a child (ren) in grades 4K-11 and you haven't already enrolled it's not too late. Just a reminder Confirmation typically occurs in 11th grade and prep begins in 10th grade so they need to be enrolled in both years. You may find the forms on the St. James website, simply click on the Christian Formation tab.
Questions?? Call the CF Office at 251-0897.

A Few Good Catechists Needed….
Lots of Good Aides Needed

Thank you to all those who have stepped forward as catechists or aides. We still are in need of Catechists to fill these times:

We still need Catechists and Aides for Middle School and High School on Sunday and Tuesday evenings.

According to the Archdiocesan policy every class should have 2 leaders. There's a board in the gathering space that lists our specific needs. Please call the CF Office 251-0897, if you are able to help.
