From The Servant's Quarters

♦ We have two new staff members to introduce to all of you. Dave Kenney is our Facilities Manager. Gerry Wolf is our new Pastoral Associate. Next weekend is our first Hospitality Weekend for the Fall. What a great time for you to meet them and welcome them officially to their positions on our Pastoral Staff.

♦ We were hoping to also introduce our new Parish Nurse at the same time, but we have not yet found him or her! If you know of anyone that might be interested, please send them our way.

♦ September 20 & 21 will be our annual Town Hall Meeting. On the 20th we will also do the Summer Cash Raffle drawing. New this year, will be refreshments! I hope you are all able to participate.

♦ Today's selection from the Gospel of Mark presents Jesus fulfilling what was expected of the Messiah: "making the deaf hear and the mute speak." His special prayer in this healing incident has found a permanent place in our Baptismal ritual. In fact the exact word is quoted: Ephphatha, that is, "be opened." The bystanders proclaim, "He has done everything well! He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

♦ What a great reminder for us as we begin the Autumn Season to grow in our faith. "The Lord Jesus made the deaf hear and the mute speak. May He touch our ears to hear his voice, and our lips to proclaim his praise, to the glory of God the Father.

♦ The prophet Isaiah proclaims the message, "Be strong, fear not!" A great picture is painted of God transforming desert dryness into streams bursting forth, sand becoming pools. Where do we need to experience a transformation? What are the dry and lifeless spots in our lives?

♦ Jesus came that we may have life in all its abundance. Let's set aside some time and energy to let Jesus do just that in our lives.

♦ The Letter of James calls us to make no distinctions among people. We are to welcome the poor in the same way we welcome someone of great means. In the ministry of Pope Francis, he goes to great lengths to demonstrate what this might look like. December 8th begins a special year devoted to experiencing the mercy of God. Let's start now in doing the groundwork.

EARLY SUNDAY MORNING RISERS!!

We have wonderful dedicated ushers that serve the 8:15 Mass. They arrive, usually, ½ hour before Mass, to open the doors.

Sometimes, due to unexpected things that occur – they may be a little late to open the doors. When this happens, and you are standing at the door waiting to get in, please be patient, and perhaps say a little prayer for them while you wait.

St. James is so fortunate that we have so many dedicated ushers. They all deserve our thanks.

If you do have questions or concerns regarding our ushers – please feel free to contact me.

Sue Mangan 262-366-1211 suemangan@ymail.com

St. James is here to help all people experience meaning and purpose in life.

On Care for Our Common Home"

"On Care for Our Common Home"
From Pope Francis's Encyclical on the Environment

In his encyclical, Pope Francis points to the intimate relationship between the poor and our planet. It is our responsibility as receivers of this wonderful gift of creation to understand that we are all integrally and ecologically connected in a web of life. Our actions whether taken in love, calculated selfishness, ignorance or simple carelessness affect the web to which all our sisters and brothers, creatures large and small are connected.

Fun Fact: The formal title of Pope Francis's encyclical is "Laudato Si', which is Latin for "Praise Be". The title comes from St. Francis of Assisi's Canticle of the Creatures. In the Canticle St. Francis uses "Praise be to you, my Lord" thanking God for brother sun and sister moon and all the blessings of creation that are beautiful and provide sustenance for God's creatures.

Tis the Season…...

Messages from our PA

- In last week's column, I mentioned that one of the prime responsibilities in my role here at St. James is to promote Evangelization. Next weekend, September 12 & 13, I'll have the opportunity to introduce myself to the parish at all the Masses. Don't be surprised when I spend a few moments reflecting with you about how we can all share the Good News as a part of our everyday life…
- With Pope Francis' visit to the U.S. fast approaching from September 22-27, a good source of details and information is the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website: www.usccb.org. Simply type "Papal Visit 2015" in the search box for a variety of interesting articles.
- Young adults of the parish, 20's & 30's, are you looking for some people your age with similar Catholic values to socialize with and grow with as friends? Did you know that there is a Greater Menomonee Falls Catholic Young Adult Group? For more info, contact Heather Wiesner at 262-894-5711, or heather.schulze@snc.edu. The group has a Facebook page with info about their upcoming activities.
- Men of the parish, join in reflecting upon and discussing the Scriptures. Beginning Tuesday, September 15th, 6:30 -7:30 a.m., in the Great Room, we will meet weekly to study the Scripture readings for the upcoming Sunday. Join us for the Word, fellowship, prayer and refreshments.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

Bereavement Fish Fry Time

It is that time again when we gather to share food and fellowship with those who have lost a loved one. We will gather at the Boneyard Grill in Sussex on Friday, the 18th of September.

Gathering time is from 5:30 pm – 6 pm. We will sit down to order our meal at 6 pm. This is a time where we help one another to grieve, to be with one another in sorrow and to love one another as Christ loves us.

If this is something you might like to attend please contact Gerry Wolf, St. James Pastoral Associate, at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

Please call in advance to reserve a spot…we look forward to seeing you there!

MISSION STATEMENT

St. James is a vibrant, welcoming Catholic Community Journeying towards the fullness of the Kingdom of God through worship, formation and service.

COMPANIONS ON THE JOURNEY

All MEN and WOMEN who have lost a loved one are invited to Maxims Restaurant on Capitol Drive in Brookfield for friendship, a meal and sharing at 9:30a.m. on Monday September 14, 2015. We also welcome all caregivers to join us.

All denominations are welcome. If you know someone who would benefit from this please invite them. If you have any questions please call Shirley at 262-246-0553. We look forward to seeing you there!!!

If Jesus asked you to come and visit Him, would your response be, "I have to check my calendar?"

Every Tuesday, at St. James. in the Historic Chapel, after morning Mass at 8:00 am, the blessed Sacrament is in Exposition on the Altar, until 5:00pm.

During the day, He waits for you. Only about 20 people each Tuesday answer His Invitation with Yes, Lord, I will be there. The numbers increase during Lent and Advent. As Catholics who profess that the Blessed Sacrament is Truly the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, why do we continue to ignore His call?

With the need in our communities, our nation, and especially our world, please listen to Him pleading with you to come into His presence for silent time. Just sit with Him. He would love that. Moms and Dads, bring your children. Neighbors, ask your friends to come. Offer an elderly person a ride who longs to go, but does not drive any more. Go by yourself. He is just waiting.

We also have an hour of closing prayer from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm which includes, the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy. In the last several months, we have only had one time when there was more than the four regulars who come and participate during the closing prayer time. Soon two of those regulars will no longer be in the area on a regular basis.

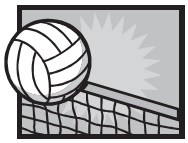
Jesus waits for your visit. Please do not disappoint Him.

For more information, please contact Reni Bohdalik-Safford at (262)246-4538 or rbohdalik@gmail.com

CATHOLICS RETURNING HOME

Get Rid of Those Negative Feelings!! ~ Have you been hurt or angered by the Church? There are others who may share many of your feelings. Please give the Church and yourself another chance by joining us at six weekly sessions called Catholics Returning Home, on Thursday evenings, at 7 p.m., hosted at Good Shepherd, beginning October 8, 2015. Former non-practicing Catholics will share their stories and listen to your feelings and concerns. There is no obligation, and perhaps some of your questions will be answered. For more information, please call Laverne (262/251-3968) or Shirley (262/251-3888).

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR ATHLETICS PROGRAM



The St. Mary Parish Athletic board is still looking for a few volunteers. The board manages the athletic center programs for St. Mary Parish School. Currently we need a couple of parents to manage the Christian Formation volleyball and basketball programs. If you are interested in learning more, contact St. Mary's athletic director, Keith Songstad. His phone and email contact information are below.
