PEW VIEW

There were two major sources for the foundation of my formation in the faith: my family and my Catholic school education under the guidance of the School Sisters of St. Francis at St. Matthias in Milwaukee. Next week is the annual commemoration of "Catholic Schools Week." For those of us who are alumni and alumnae of Catholic schools it is an opportunity to give thanks for the dedicated teachers who taught us; for our parents who sacrificed financially; and to all parishioners and others who so generously supported Catholic education.

While St. James no longer has its own Catholic School we do support families who chose a Catholic School education for their children. St. Mary's is the only Catholic School in our tri-parish cluster. Other neighboring schools are: Queen of Apostles, St. Agnes, and St. Anthony's.

Reflecting on my life I realize that it was at St. Matthias that the seeds for the vocation to the ministry which I am privileged to exercise here at St. James were sown and nurtured. While Catholic schools have changed since I was a child what hasn't changed is the core of Catholic education – a firm foundation in the tradition of the Catholic faith. Even today there is a spiritual ambience that seems to permeate every aspect of a Catholic school. Sometimes it is obvious in the curriculum or in the various worship activities including regular prayer and celebration of the Eucharist. But other times it is more subtle, like an attitude and a "spiritual feeling" whereby the Catholicism of a school seems to fill the air and get into one's bones. If you have preschool age children why not take advantage of the upcoming open houses and visit our Catholic schools to discover for yourself the uniqueness of a Catholic school education?

While I fondly remember the many School Sisters of St. Francis who taught me and shaped my early life I still have the privilege of serving with a member of that religious community here at St. James – S. Carol Ann Jaeger. No, S. Carol Ann was not one of my teachers! But I have known S. Carol Ann for many years as our ministerial paths have crossed and intersected in our work throughout the Archdiocese.

As you see on this bulletin cover Sister Carol Ann is celebrating the 50th Anniversary of her profession as a vowed religious. Celebrating a Jubilee of any kind is a special blessing. To profess vows, remain faithful to them, and continue to live them with a renewed vitality each day for 50 years calls for a celebration! Please honor S. Carol Ann at the 10:15 a.m. Mass on Sunday, February 6th. Come and give thanks to her for all she has done for Christ's Church and specifically for us here at St. James. Yes, it is Super Bowl Sunday but S. Carol Ann is a super person. In fact, there's Nun like her!

"I Came that They May Have Life" Living Christ's Message of Love for All Sunday, February 13, 6:30 to 8 pm, St. James Community Center.

Our Church teaches that all life is sacred from the moment of conception through natural death. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end; but in an age when we can do almost anything, how do we decide what we ought to do? Our speakers Fr. Art Heinze and Vicki Thorn, Foundress of Project Rachel, will provide us with an understanding of the Church's moral teaching which calls us to a consistent and real respect for all human life. All are invited

If you prefer to bring cheese, sausage and crackers; etc. Saturday evening, that would be wonderful. Those of you who love to bake and would like to bring something every month, bless you and please do. If you are going to be out of town when it's your turn, please feel free to bring something either the month before or after.

Living the Gospel Mini-Series: Living as Family in Community

In Scripture, Jesus tells us to love one another, but is God really asking me to love everyone?

- What does it mean to live in family and community?
- Who genuinely are my sisters and brothers?
- Where can I find God in the strife of family and culture?
- Why should I care?

Human boundaries whether political, cultural or based on fear limit our ability to live in true community, yet the message of Jesus is one of inclusion and participation. What does that mean? How far do we need to stretch? Is it possible to break free of boundaries that limit our loving relationship with God and each other?

In this mini series on Living the Gospel, we will explore the call to love one another as one human family. We invite you to come and join us as we rededicate ourselves to Living the Gospel message.

Living the Gospel* is a four session Scripture based small group discussion plus service immersion experience offered by the 3 parish cluster of St. James, St. Mary and Good Shepherd. The series will be held 7 to 8:30 pm on Feb 10, 17, and 24 with an outreach experience on Mar 3. One session will be held at each church. The deadline to register for this mini series is Monday, February 7. To register contact Paul or Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com or call 414-550-2167 with your name, email address and/or phone number.

Together we will explore how we can Live the Gospel.

TRIVIA NIGHT - HELP WANTED!

Last winter St James held their first Trivia Night, which was well attended and very successful. There was a lot of enthusiasm and friendly competition among the teams. And, from all reports, everyone had a GREAT time!

Cathy Sirianni will again chair the event; however, she needs help to make it happen. She is looking for someone from the parish to co-chairman this function with her. He/she would handle duties such as advertising, preparing rule sheets, answer sheets, tickets, small awards and winners certificates, (the rules, forms and procedures are available electronically from last year).

They would also need to set up a table with simple drinks and snacks. Members of the Activities Committee will be available to answer questions and give guidance, if necessary. We will also be available to sell tickets after Mass.

If you can help with this event, contact Ruth Ann this week at 262-439-9090 so that Trivia Night will again be a reality!

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration
