Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

— Jn 8:6b-7

Matthew 25 Year of Mercy

How fitting that the first Sunday Angelus of Pope Francis, who has made mercy his papacy's theme, took place the last time today's Gospel about Jesus' encounter with the adulterous woman was proclaimed. "Jesus' attitude is striking," Francis declared. "We do not hear words of scorn or condemnation, only words of love, of mercy, an invitation to conversion: 'Neither do I condemn you'" (John 8:11). Francis continued: "God's face is the face of a merciful father who is always patient. Have you thought about God's patience, the patience [God] has with each one of us? That is [God's] mercy. [God] always has patience, patience with us . . . understands us . . . waits for us . . . does not tire of forgiving us" if we return 'with a contrite heart" (Pope Francis, Angelus address, March 17, 2013). Parishes preparing catechumens may proclaim Jesus' raising of Lazarus. Referring to Lazarus, and all those "raised" from the "death" of sin, Jesus defines the community's "mission of mercy"— "Untie him and let him go" (John 11:44). —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. SELECT an Act of Mercy and Generosity from the Lenten Cross at the baptismal font or take a "Leap of Faith" and select an envelope from a basket on the alter.

From The Servant's Quarters

• This weekend we hear of another incident in which Jesus reveals the infinite mercy of God. The religious leaders drag a woman caught "in the very act of adultery." According to the tradition of Moses, such women were to have stones thrown at them until they were dead.

nothing is said about the man that made it possible for her to commit adultery!) Jesus is quiet for a while, bends down, and doodles in the sand. One theory is that he is writing the sins of the religious leaders who dragged her there!

• After then continuing to pester Jesus, he responds wisely, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to cast a stone at her."

• The version that did not make it into the Bible is that a stone came flying toward the woman. Jesus said, "Is that you again Mother?" An obvious reference to our belief in the Immaculate Conception of Mary, no sin in her entire life from the very moment of her conception. I suppose you can see why this version didn't make it into the Scriptures!

• One by one the folks drift away. Jesus invites them to take their own personal inventory. And then we experience most dramatically the eternal mercy of God. "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" "No one, sir." "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

• We sing this powerful reassurance of God's infinite mercy during Lent as we sing the hymn, The God of Second Chances. If God is eager to give you and me a "second chance" to turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel, how fitting it is then for us to do the same for one another. Be reconciled to one another and to God. Release those we hold captive by holding grudges. It's been said that holding a grudge is like drinking poison, and then expecting the other person to die! Grudges eat us up inside. Grudges corrupt our inner life. Grudges ruin our inner serenity.

• Often forgiveness is very difficult to give. We may feel mortally wounded. We may feel justified in our anger and in withholding our love. That's why we need to absorb the dying and rising of Christ Crucified; soak in the power that flows from the wood of the cross. If this is our focus these 40 days, we will experience a new depth of resurrection March 27th.

- In May I will again send $800 to the three Tanzanian children we are putting through school. Perhaps you can help me get these funds together by sending a portion of the fruits of your Lenten sacrifices my way. You can make the check out to me, as I do a transfer from my checking account via Western Union.

"A minister was leading a study on Hosea with the women's group. They were discussing how unmarried priests came from medieval times, and that St. Peter himself had a mother-in-law. When he explained that St. Peter had a wife and probably children, one woman chimed in, 'That's why he was always fishing!'"

Open Door Café, Milwaukee —Serves those in need by providing a midday meal, professional & health assistance.

Guest House of Milwaukee—Shelter for homeless men.

Bereavement Fish Fry Time

It is that time again when we gather to share food and fellowship with those who have lost a loved one. We will gather at the Boneyard Grill in Sussex on Friday, the 18th of March.

Gathering time is from 5:30 pm – 6 pm. We will sit down to order our meal at 6 pm. This is a time where we are present to one another in fellowship, to love one another as Christ loves us.

If this is something you might like to attend please contact Gerry Wolf, St. James Pastoral Associate, at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org. Please call in advance to reserve a spot... we look forward to seeing you there!

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. James Catholic Education Policy

St. James is committed to the faith development of all parish families and their children. For those families who would like to send their children to a Catholic school, St. James offers a Catholic School Tuition assistance program. The program is based on a partnership approach between the parish, parents and students. For qualifying families, St. James will provide tuition support. For more information, please contact Terri Weber in the parish office (262) 253-2259 by May 31, 2016.

COLLATORS

Please consider joining us on Wednesday, March 16 at 8:30 am to put together the Easter Vigil Orders of Worship in the community center. Even an hour of your time is helpful. It's also a great way to meet other parishioners. If you've never collated before consider stopping in and giving it a try.

Your help is appreciated.

ST.BEN'S MEAL PROGRAM

It is time for us to donate food for the St. Ben's Meal Program this coming Wednesday, March 16th. St James' role in this ministry is to supplement a meatloaf & mashed potatoes/gravy dinner (supplied by Good Shepherd & St Mary's).

We need parishioners to bring salads, fruits & vegetables of any kind & meat or seafood casseroles/pastas. Desserts are okay but they need to be fresh. There is sufficient bread & rolls already provided. Our efforts either supplement the meatloaf dinner or provide an alternative for the homeless & poor.

You do not have to sign up to be a part of this ministry, all we ask is that your donations be at St. James in the upstairs kitchen (counters or refrigerators) before 4:00 pm as our last driver leaves promptly at 4:00. If you have questions or are interested in going down to help serve occasionally, please contact Jeff & Lynn Kenkel at 532-0065 or jkenkel5@gmail.com

A note from Brigitte Gliniski, Parish Nurse

Colon cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death in men and women combined in the US. With regular screening for the disease, colon cancer can be found early and that means a chance at a longer life. Screening is generally recommended to start at age 50, earlier if you have a higher risk. Risk factors for colon cancer include: age over 50, a family history of polyps, a family history of colon cancer, ulcerative colitis or Crohn's disease, a personal history of cancer, a diet high in red meat and fat, and a history of smoking.

The most common type of screening for colon cancer is a colonoscopy. A colonoscopy is a simple and safe procedure in which your doctor uses a long tube with a light and camera to detect polyps. After your first screening, the next screening will occur every 5-10 years, depending on whether polyps were found. If polyps are found during examination, they will be removed.

Make sure to speak with your doctor about when to begin screening for colon cancer.

- This past weekend we held our parish's annual Stewardship Fair. This year's theme was “March Madness”. If you did not have the time to visit some of the tables for various committees and ministries, there is still an opportunity for you to get involved. Your abilities, talents, skills, interests, and gifts can be put to good use in the service of either our parish or its outreach ministries. Maybe you're not sure where or how you would best fit in? Call me, and we can have a conversation to try and figure that out...
- As a result of the Stewardship Fair, we now have 55 more parishioners who expressed a willingness to be involved in various parish ministries and activities...Praise God! It's clear that we still need to engage more of our parishioners in active service, and we all know that direct invitation is usually the most effective way to do that, but let's evaluate our Stewardship Fair process and results and build from there. Any ideas, suggestions and input can be shared with any of the Stewardship Committee members: Tom Becker, Steve Choate, Natalie Horch, Sandra Klafke, and myself.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

St. James Community Gardens

Every once in a while you find out you're ahead of the curve. You learn that you're doing something that suddenly others think is worth doing too. There has recently been some buzz in the media about trendy grocery stores making a place on their shelves for 'ugly' fruits and vegetables. You know, the runners up in the beautiful produce contest: carrots with three legs; tomatoes with growth cracks; cucumbers that curl at the end. Those veggies are still edible and nutritious, but stores have been rejecting them because they 'don't look nice'.

Gardeners have known for a long time that beauty in the garden is only skin (peel) deep. In fact the looks of a vegetable can tell you about its past...the kind of soil it grew in, the temperature fluctuations, even how it was pollinated. But, unless disease is involved, the 'ugly' vegetables are just as nutritious as the pretty ones. So, while some of the produce we send to the food pantry may not be camera ready; it is still a valuable addition to anyone's diet. Keep that in mind if 'ugly' veggies start showing up in your favorite store. Choose them and give them a good home.

Do you live in Brookfield? We are looking for a Brookfield resident to accompany a group member on his trips to get the chips and compost from the dump. If you can help, or if you want more information, please contact Bill Spankowski at 262-783-5199 or email him at wspankowski@wi.rr.com

Don't forget, our annual plant sale coming May 21/22. We look forward to seeing you and thanking you in person for all your support. If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, feel free to contact Paul Schneider at (414) 587-1202 or pschneider@wi.rr.com

Mini-Workcamp 2016: Taking Your Faith Out to the Community

One of the best ways to live your faith is to do good deeds for others. Mini-workcamp is a great opportunity to do this and have a lot of fun with some friends. On Saturday, April 23rd, we will be doing some spring cleanup for almost 100 local residents who can use the help. For $15 and your working hands, you'll get three meals and a t-shirt. It's open to 7th graders through high schoolers. Adults are needed as well to make this huge spring cleaning happen. Friends and family are always welcome to join in the fun.

So if you want to make the most of your love for God and others and want to make a difference in our community, get your registration on the website or across from the Christian Formation office. Need more information? Contact Bryan: ramseyb@archmil.org or 262.253.2915.

St. James is here to help all people experience meaning and purpose in life.
