Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free.

Fr. Mike is on retreat thru Monday, January 25th

From The Servant's Quarters will return in the January 30/31 bulletin.

Messages from our PA

- Before Fr. Mike left for his retreat, he informed me that my column would take the place of his in this weekend's bulletin. So I paid special attention to the readings for this weekend and would like to share some reflections with you. In addition to my personal reflections, I'm also including some insights from our past week's Tuesday morning Mens' Scripture group, which always reads and discusses the upcoming weekend readings.
- An interesting common thread for the three readings is that each refers to a gathering of believers, a community of faith that finds a shared identity in their relationship with God. In the Nehemiah reading, it is the Israelites who have returned from exile in Babylon who gather to hear the book of the law from Ezra the priest. In the gospel of Luke, it is the Jews of Nazareth who gather in the synagogue for the Sabbath to hear Jesus proclaim a passage from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. In Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, Paul identifies all individuals, regardless of their human backgrounds, who are baptized in water and the Holy Spirit, as members of the one Body of Christ.
- This communal dimension underscores the basic human and social need for sharing faith with others. Religion and Faith are never strictly personal realities. They are both personal and communal, and a vibrant, healthy faith acknowledges both dimensions. Personal spirituality is undeniable—each person has a distinct and unique relationship with God. At the same time, everyone's personal walk with God happens in the context of our relationships with family, friends, fellow parishioners, and even the whole human race! We all make a difference in each other's faith lives, whether we realize it or not…
- That is why Jesus teaches that the whole Law of Moses and the Prophets depend on two commands: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind…You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
- May our St. James parish family continue to treasure our shared relationship with Jesus Christ, Our risen Lord, especially in the Eucharist, but also in our daily lives. May we grow more confident in witnessing to the power of His presence in our relationships, our jobs, our families, our efforts to serve others and our everyday decisions and choices. Have a blessed week!

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

Organic Food – The Problem with Pesticides

"The Jubilee Year "was an acknowledgment that the gift of the earth with its fruits belongs to everyone. Those who tilled and kept the land were obliged to share its fruits, especially with the poor, with widows, orphans and foreigners in their midst [LS, 71]."

Pollinators like honey bees are critical to food production. Bees, butterflies, and insects pollinate over 130 kinds of food crops – that's 1 out of every 3 bites of food we eat. Even crops like broccoli depend on pollinators for seed production. Check the display in the gathering space to find out what produce has been tested to have the most and least pesticide residue.

Matthew 25 Year of Mercy for Lent
A Pilgrimage

Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. JEREMIAH 6:16

A pilgrimage is a journey to some sacred place as an act of religious devotion. A pilgrim is more than a tourist and a pilgrimage is more than a journey. A pilgrim travels with a spiritual purpose, a goal to be closer to God. The practice of pilgrimage has a special place in the Holy Year of Mercy, because it represents the journey each of us makes in this life. Life itself is a pilgrimage, and the human being is a viator, a pilgrim travelling along the road, making one's way to the desired destination.

This Lent we invite each of you to make a pilgrimage, each according to his or her ability. This pilgrimage will be a sign that mercy is also a goal to reach and requires dedication and sacrifice. Pilgrimage will be an impetus to conversion: we will find the strength to embrace God's mercy and dedicate ourselves to being merciful with others as the Father has been with us.

Elizabeth Ministry

The Elizabeth Ministry has multiple facets, including the Rosebud Program and supporting families during times of need. Our Rosebud program is up and running, and can be found in the alcove in the main church where the statue of Mary is located. In this New Year I would like to really focus on the supportive role that Elizabeth Ministers have. The Elizabeth Ministry reaches out to women and their families. It encourages the support and assistance to these women by sharing similar stories and experiences. No matter what stage you are in of the reproductive journey, from miscarriage, infertility, adoption and childbirth, even father or grandparent concerns, the Elizabeth Ministry is here to support you.

Why is the Elizabeth Ministry important? These days we live a more isolated life, we no longer have the community and support in our neighborhoods, even our churches have increased in size and it has become more difficult to create a hospitable and loving environment. The support and guidance of extended family may not be available. The Elizabeth Ministry was inspired by the visit between Mary and Elizabeth, found in the Gospel of Luke. This is a beautiful example of sharing faith.

Volunteers are needed to support the different aspects of this ministry. No training is necessary; your life experience is enough. Offering words of support and encouragement through phone calls, taking the time to visit moms with new babies. There are no meetings, there is no set time commitment, whatever time you can give is enough.

Please look for the poster in the Gathering Space after Mass in February for more information regarding the Elizabeth Ministry. Please contact me, Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse, if you are interested in volunteering your talents, or if you are in need of a visit. My phone number is 262-250-2663,or email me at glinskib@archmil.org.

Elizabeth Ministry Prayer

Creator God, I pledge to truly celebrate the gift of each child conceived and born and fully mourn each miscarriage, abortion, stillbirth and infant or child death. I will be a witness to my belief in the dignity and worth of all life, by honoring sexuality, treasuring the gift of fertility, promoting chaste living, uplifting the sanctity of marriage, helping those struggling with unhealthy lifestyles and sexual sins, supporting those suffering infertility problems, encouraging those in the adoptive process and assisting families with prenatal, infant or child crisis, illness or special need. I will be a strong and consistent voice for life in my home, my church, my community and my world. Amen.
