THIRTY-SECOND
SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Many rich people put in large sums. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." - Mk 12:41c, 43-44

From The Servant's Quarters

• What a wonderful beginning we had to the month of November last weekend, (If you ignore the Packer's defeat!) Thanks to all who helped us to remember lovingly  our faithful departed and to help provide ongoing healing and support to those among us who mourn. Those grieving are embedded in the gospel proclaimed for All Saints Day, Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted. This entire month we remember the heroes of our faith - those officially remembered on our church calendar, and those whose names are written on our hearts. As 2015 comes to an end with a blaze of Autumn glory, we are reminded that our loved ones are participating in the eternal glory we look forward to sharing some day.

• Being harvest time, November is also a time to count our blessings as we prepare for our annual Thanksgiving Day celebration. We recall each year the Biblical vocation to be good stewards of all that is "on loan" to us while we inhabit this world. From the Scriptures we take our cue from our ancestors in faith how best to show gratitude to God for all His blessings to us.

• And so once again we are invited to renew our financial support of the many inspiring ministries of St. James Parish. I'm grateful to Gerry Wolf for embracing the task of helping us grow in a spirit of stewardship. Gerry has begun working with our stewardship committee which focuses more on the time and talent portion of stewardship. And this weekend Gerry is helping us to reflect on the financial expression of stewardship as well. Soon you will have your annual commitment cards in hand via the mail. Next weekend we ask you to return them as a sign of gratitude to the Lord for all his blessings to us. And practically speaking, this process helps us plan to operate under a balanced budget in the coming year.

• By now you may be aware that we have the capability of "on line giving" on our parish web site. We've already had several people make use of this convenient way to contribute to the parish. On line giving has the potential of providing steady income, even when people are out of town or unable to participate in the weekend liturgies. Just like home, the bills never stop!

• Here's a simple prayer to pray today. Blessed Vince Lombardi, pray for us!

• This unofficial "patron saint" of the Green Bay Packers was a daily communicant during his time in Green Bay. We're told he had a special devotion to St. Anthony (patron of things lost, hmmm, what was lost recently?) and to St. Jude (patron of hopeless cases!) With just one loss so far, it's too soon to ask St. Jude to spring into action!

• A Sunday school teacher was describing how Lot's wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt. Little Jimmy raised his hand and said, "My mother looked back once when she was driving and turned into a telephone pole."

St. James' Weekly Tithes (Outreach)

Since the 1980's St. James has distributed a portion of its weekly income as a tithe for various outreach programs and organizations. This past week $450 was donated to:

House of Peace—Milwaukee. Provides food, clothing,, and access to medical & legal services to the poor.

As Catholic Stewards, We Are Called to share, each one in proportion to ability. Over the next two weeks you will be encouraged to think and pray about the ways God has generously blessed your life. You will be invited to consider how your life is enriched by our parish community and about how you make a difference for others through your financial support of St. James Parish. Watch your mail for a special Stewardship mailing this week.

New this year! Electronic giving! Consider automating your regular donations with our new electronic giving program. St. James Parish relies on the financial support of all parishioners and electronic giving offers an easy way to give on a recurring basis. Visit the parish website: <https://stjames-parish.net> and click on the "Give" button or the "Online Giving" tab to set up and schedule your payments.

November is National Adoption Awareness Month.

Human Sex Trafficking - Be Informed

As Deacon Steve shared with us, all 72 counties in the state of Wisconsin have experienced human sex trafficking. When looking hard enough, sex trafficking was found in Hartford, Hartland and Delafield. In short, it is in our backyard!

St. James has launched the parish-wide book read: In Our Backyard by Nita Belles. Over 70 parishioners purchased the book. We will have opportunities for group discussion on Sunday November 15 between Masses, Tuesday morning November 17 at 8:45 am, Wednesday evening November 18 at 6:30 pm, Thursday evening November 19 at 6:30 pm and Saturday November 21 at 9:00 am.

No reservations needed. All discussion groups will be held in the Great Room. There will be few copies of the book in the parish library located in the Great Room. The book also can be purchased online and in Kindle. There will be calls to action for opportunities to take a stand against this most horrific crisis. Please join us for this most important conversation.

A Friendly Reminder About SNL

Our 5:30 Sunday night liturgy (SNL) is here for you whether there's Christian formation classes or not. This new Mass offering is what families have been telling us for years is really needed for the busy lives we all live.

And it's not just for our young people. Young, old, married, single, empty-nester or back late from up north; all are welcome. Spread the word, come and enjoy as we build this new community and celebrate Mass together.

Laudato Si' Praise Be! On Care for Our Common Home Energy

"We act as though "there is an infinite supply of the earth's goods, and this leads to the planet being squeezed dry beyond every limit. It is the false notion that "an infinite quantity of energy and resources are available, that it is possible to renew them quickly, and that the negative effects of the exploitation of the natural order can be easily absorbed"." [Pope Francis, 106]

The vast majority of our electricity in southeastern WI is generated from coal extracted from deep within the earth and shipped over a 1000 miles from Wyoming to Wisconsin. We can reduce our use of coal by taking steps toward energy efficiency like reducing energy loss by unplugging electronics and appliances when not in use. See more at the gathering space display.

Infancy Stories of Jesus

Miles Vilski will be leading a discussion on Luke and Matthew's Gospels regarding the infancy of Jesus. Join us in the Great Room either Tuesday's or Thursday's for this interesting discussion.

Tuesday's	Thursday's
6:30-8:00 p.m.	9:00-10:30 a.m.
November 17	December 3
December 1	December 10
December 8	December 17

We will explore the context, settings and meanings of the Infancy Narratives in a deeper way.

All are welcome. Come experience this unique way to celebrate Advent.

At each of the sessions there will be a free will offering of baby items such as formula, diapers, and wipes to help mothers who are less fortunate.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. James is a vibrant, welcoming Catholic Community Journeying towards the fullness of the Kingdom of God through worship, formation and service.

Messages from our PA

- If you were at Mass this weekend, and didn't get an opportunity to stop for snacks after Mass and let me know what you thought of my Stewardship presentation. I'd like your feedback. Please send me an email or give me a quick call to give me your impression, offer any suggestions or ideas on how we can help our parish be the best it can be, or if you personally would like to become more involved...
- Last Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, was the feast of Saint Martin de Porres, patron saint of our sister parish in Milwaukee. November is Black Catholic History month. It offers us an opportunity to appreciate our brothers and sisters in the Black Catholic Community, to celebrate the long history and the proud heritage of Black Catholics. Many of us are so tied to our European roots that we forget that the African Catholic Church existed hundreds of years before our pagan ancestry received the faith around 800 to 900 AD.

The following information is reprinted from a weekly memo from Archbishop ListECKI sent to parish staff members: "St. Martin de Porres was a saint who suffered his share of rejection due to the color of his skin. Born in 1579, of an ex-slave, Panamanian mother, St. Martin was rejected by his own Spanish father because of the darkness of his skin. He turned his life over to Jesus and embraced the Dominican Order as a lay brother where he tirelessly served the poor and slaves, binding their wounds using his medical skills to heal them. He prayed ceaselessly before the Eucharist, which motivated him to seek out those in need. His color didn't stop him from reaching out to others, nor did it prevent him from being a leading witness of the love of Jesus. St. Martin achieved what every Christian seeks and that is the crown of sainthood. He discovered the pearl of great price and cherished its possession.

Modern Black Catholic figures present inspiring stories overcoming tremendous social obstacles in order to serve Christ and His Church. Saint Josephine Bakhita was introduced to much of the Catholic Church in Pope Benedict's encyclical, Spe Salvi. St. Josephine was kidnapped and sold into slavery, abused and beaten, her body scarred. She came to know Jesus, who she accepted as her master, and then freely followed Him into religious life.

As Pope Benedict stated: "Now she had 'hope' – no longer simply the modest hope of finding masters who would be less cruel, but the great hope: 'I am definitively loved and whatever happens to me – I am awaited by this love. And so my life is good.' Through the knowledge of this hope she was redeemed, no longer a slave but a free child of God." (#3)

There are others who are awaiting canonization: Mother Mary Lange, who founded the Oblate Sisters of Providence, educated African American girls and nursed the terminally ill of the cholera epidemic of 1832, and Father Augustus Tolton, who rose from slavery to priesthood. His cause is being promoted by Bishop Joseph Perry, a former priest of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

On Sunday, November 8, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee is holding a Black Catholic summit. Bringing together various individuals involved with Black Catholic ministry, we will discuss evangelization, pastoral challenges and envisioning the future.

Engaging Catholic leadership, we will hopefully begin to move forward utilizing the talents of the Black Catholic Community as we implement the priorities of the 2014 Synod and celebrate the diversity of our Church."

- The Year of Mercy announced by Pope Francis is set to begin on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Tuesday, December 8th. Watch for Year of Mercy prayer cards, available in church in late November/early December. More Year of Mercy resources and activities can be found on the archdiocesan website at: www.archmil.org/YearofMercy.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.
