From The Servant's Quarters

❖ What a fine celebration of Christmas we had this past week. Many thanks to all who helped to prepare, to lead, and to guide our liturgical celebrations. As I shook hands with people leaving Mass, there were many appreciative comments about the entire experience. One person said he never heard a church choir sing as well as the St. James choir!

❖ And so on we go, continuing to unwrap the Christmas mystery this weekend as we focus on the Holy Family. The Scriptures give us much to reflect on, presenting the various dimensions of family life, from care for one's aging parents to advice not to "nag" one's children, "lest they lose heart!" There is something for everyone!

❖ Isn't it inspiring and consoling to think about Jesus experiencing growing up in a typical family of his day. He learned the Jewish faith and traditions from his parents and extended family. He participated in the religious life of the Temple. This feast reminds us that nothing truly human separates us from the love of God. On the contrary, The glory of God is human beings living life to the fullest. Emmanuel, God-With-Us enables us to do just that with enthusiasm and grace.

❖ The Christmas season this year extends all the way to January 13 th with the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord. Next weekend is the Epiphany of the Lord, with the arrival of the Magi, the Wise ones from the East. And don't forget about January 1 st . This first day of 2013 is a holyday this year in celebration of Mary, the Mother of God. Hopefully we can cultivate an ongoing sense of joy that carries us well into the new year. (Can you keep your tree up that long? Or is it down already! Maybe at least try to keep the crib and manger scene in full view these weeks.)

❖ And on a personal note, I want to thank all who have sent cards, prayers, gifts, good wishes, and yes cookies too! Comet also is grateful for the many treats received! Each year I have the best intentions to send "thank you" notes but inevitably the time gets away from me. Maybe that would be a good new year's resolution!

❖ Which reindeer has the cleanest antlers? Comet!

❖ Which elf is the best singer? Elfis Presley.

Fr. Mike & Comet

Fields of Hope and Dreams Community Gardens

January 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation honoring Mary, Mother of God. Here at St. James we celebrate Mass at 9:00 a.m. However a vigil Mass may be held so some celebrate Mass on New Year's Eve. Many Lutheran, Methodists, Protestants and Christian African American communities celebrate what is known as "Watch Night" - think of the song – Be Watchful. . . Be Ready). Services continue past midnight, giving thanks for the blessings of the past year and praying for divine favor in the New Year. Watch Night took on special significance on the Eve of 1862, when slaves anticipated Lincoln's signing of the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863. A traditional southern New Year's dish is: Hoppin' John—black eyed peas and ham hocks. An old saying goes, "Eat peas on New Year's day to have plenty of everything the rest of the year." The tradition has evolved to include: 1) Hog jowls, ham hocks or ham symbolizing prosperity. 2) Black-eyed peas served with greens (collards, mustard, turnip green or cabbage) where the peas represent coinage and the greens, paper currency. 3) Cornbread, served with the peas and greens, represents gold. 4) For the best chance of luck, one must eat at least 365 black-eyed peas on New Year's Day. 5) Black-eyed peas eaten with stewed tomatoes bring wealth and health. 6) Eating anything in the shape of a ring, symbolizing "coming full circle". Meaningful food customs bring people closer together. Our volunteer gardeners will be coming together to plan for spring. If you'd like to join us, call (414) 587-1202 or email: pschneider@wi.rr.com. We thank you for supporting our two gardens.

MINI-WORKCAMP Planning will begin on Monday, January 7th 6:30 PM at Christ Our Savior

Christ Our Savior is located on Silver Spring Drive next door to Templeton Middle School. Any adults and youth 7th grade or older that would like to help us plan for this day are welcome to join us on the 7th. The date this year for Mini-Workcamp is April 20th. Mini-Workcamp is a day long project for the Cooperating Churches in Sussex where adults & teens from the CCOS parishes do spring clean up for area senior citizens. We usually meet once a month to plan and make sure all of the details are covered. If you have any questions about Mini-Workcamp feel free to call Diana at 253-2235. If you want to help with the planning simply show up on January 7th at Christ Our Savior. We need help from as many adults and teens as possible to take small pieces to help plan for this large event so we hope you can join us!

I would like to thank my Christmas Team and EVERYONE who helped prepare and decorate the church for Christmas.

Thanks to Chad at Johnson's Nursery and Karl at Shady Lane Nursery for their donations and extra Poinsettias.

Gene & Elaine Damato and Kathy Gawryleski for their monetary donations.

A special thank you to Sue Renzelmann my co-chair for all her extra help!

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

ACOLYTES FOR FUNERALS

St. James has an opportunity for people to be part of our Bereavement Ministry by serving as acolytes for our funerals. Acolytes are needed for both daytime and evening funerals. No experience is necessary and training will be provided. Each year we have about 40 or more funerals. Families often comment on how caring the entire bereavement ministry is here at St. James. An important aspect of this is the funeral service itself. Please consider your calling to assist in this prayerful corporal work of mercy. Call Daryl at 253-2213 to offer your services or for more information.

The Office for World Mission and the people of La Sagrada Familia would like to thank you for your generous response to the special collection in your parish. Your donations will support the ongoing social and pastoral needs of the archdiocesan sister parish. They express the special bond of faith and friendship between us. If you would like more information about the parish, including how you can join in our upcoming trip there, please visit: http://www.archmil.org/parishes/Sagrada-Familia.htm. Thank you again and have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
