Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

— Lk 5:10-11

Matthew 25 for Lent

I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." -- Jesus in Matthew 25:35-37

With Ash Wednesday approaching, we again turn our hearts and our minds toward experiencing a glimpse of the kingdom. We will explore anew how we can become more and more like the righteous in Matt 25 who when told they were destined for the kingdom - in surprise, asked, "Lord, when did we see you hungry, naked, or a stranger?"

During Lent we invite you to engage in Corporal Works of Mercy by donating items each week to the hungry, the homeless, the stranger, the homebound, and imprisoned. We also encourage you to use your Spiritual Gifts to take a larger leap of faith by choosing an act of service from the Lenten Cross at the Baptismal Font. When you have completed the service on the card, write a short synopsis of your experience and place it in the basket at the foot of the cross.

Called by our baptism to love and serve, we ask for God's grace to love others as Jesus loves us and to know our purpose in this life in its ever changing forms.

Fast and Abstinence

Customarily, fasting required that a person take only one meal a day, but current Church discipline permits one to take a main meal and two lesser meals which together do not equal the main meal.

All persons who have reached their 14th birthday are bound by the law of abstinence.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat and meat products as well as days of fast. The other Fridays of Lent remain days of abstinence from meat and meat products.

Am I Getting too Old For This? (Part 2)

I ended last week's column with some thoughts about decision making involving not only yourself, but if you are married, your spouse and children. However, there is another important person in the process, your pastor. (In this case Fr. Mike) The pastor's letter of endorsement is a must, so he should be involved in the process from the start.

There are numerous requirements for acceptance into the formation program which space here does not allow me to list, but Fr. Mike and I have pamphlets explaining the process. The most important, and obvious, is that the person perceives, after prayer and reflection, that they are being called to this ministry. In addition, it is important that the person is involved in the parish in the areas of charity, justice, advocacy, faith formation, liturgy and parish life; has at least some form of continuing education in the faith, (i.e. scripture study, church sponsored education, retreats, etc.), an active prayer life and reception of the sacraments, and in the Milwaukee Archdiocese, be at least 35 years old and no older than 60 years old at the time of ordination. If not retired, the candidate must also be employed in a job capable of supporting his family, (Deacons are NOT employed nor paid by the Archdiocese or parish), and be in good health.

After the admission process is completed, and the candidate is accepted into the program, the first year is a period called "Aspirancy" during which the candidate, and his wife, if married are required to attend together. At the end of that first year the Archbishop selects those who will go on toward ordination. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th years of discernment and formation include prayer, study, retreats and reflection that then lead up toward the final decision on the part of the candidate, with the recommendation of the program and the Archbishop, for ordination.

Something you may not know – the deacon is ordained for the Bishop/Archbishop of the diocese and NOT for a particular parish. After ordination, the deacon is assigned, by the Archbishop, to the Deacon's home parish if at all possible. However, since we are under the Archbishops authority, we can be assigned to a parish which needs our particular talents. (This has not happened to my knowledge in my 25 years, but it is a possibility that needs to be kept in mind.)

Just a little aside for your thoughts and reflection. our cluster parishes, have 7 deacons, Here at St. James, myself who will be turning 70 this year, Bob Wodushek age 75, technically retired but still helps out; At Good Shepherd Sandy Sites 62 who is also the parish director and Dennis Fietz ordained in 1978; at St. Mary's – Tom Monday 72 , Robert "Buck" Buth 75, retired but still active and the "young guy", Jim Goetter 61. As you can see, we are no "spring chickens" and our futures at the parishes we serve may be numbered in years. The question is – "Who will be there to take the reigns"?

If you feel that God may be calling you, contact Fr. Mike, myself or any one of the staff here at St. James. Peace and May God guide you in your decisions.

Deacon Mike Rooney

Lenten Small Group Series: Habits of the Heart - Seeking a Change of Heart. An invitation to 'see with our eyes and perceive with our heart'. To see as Jesus sees is to be compassionate and open to new ideas and new experiences in our relationship with God and each other. In Habits of the Heart we will reclaim the original meaning of 'heart,' a word that points to the core of self - that place where intellect, experience and emotion converge - a place where we become more fully human. In this 5 week series, through Scripture, dialogue and example, we will explore 5 habits of the heart that we can use in our Lenten journey to lead us toward being more open with others and toward a closer heartfelt relationship with God. ... This Lent, you're invited to join a Habits of the Heart small group - on either Thursday evenings beginning Feb 21 from 6:30 to 8 pm at St. James or Saturday mornings from 9 to 10:30 am beginning Feb 16 at Good Shepherd. To participate in this Lenten series, please contact Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com / 414.550.2167

Dying with Dignity; A Discussion on End of Life Issues

St. James Parish Nurse Pam Dennis will be the presenter at the GIFT "Digging Deeper" program on Sunday, Feb. 24 from 11:30 – 12:30, to be repeated on Tuesday, Feb. 26 from 6:30-7:30 PM. The sessions will be in the Community Center. TOPIC: What better gift to give to your family and loved ones than to prepare for your wishes at the end of your life. Come hear about how you can prepare the way with the use of a document called the Five Wishes document. We will discuss the Five Wishes document in depth, talk about Health Care Power of Attorney and look at the Catholic Church's thoughts on end of life issues. Come and get informed so you can be ready for yourself or one of your family members when they really need you most. There is no charge for this session and it is not necessary to register in advance. Free will offering for the "Five Wishes" document.

"I am not sure what heaven will be like, but I know that when we die and it comes time for God to judge us, he will not ask, 'How many good things have you done in your life?' rather he will ask, 'How much love did you put into what you did?'" - Mother Teresa

The Need for Immigration Reform

Restoration of Due Process Protections

The message of last weeks Gospel is that no matter where we come from All People are gathered together by God as the one family in Christ - a message that was hard for Jesus' listeners to hear. We are asked by Christ to love and care for our sisters and brothers as he loved us [John 15]. This faith – this love is our starting point. To be concerned about members of our family in God means we need to be concerned that our migrant sisters and brothers are not exposed to lengthy detention in substandard conditions, often without medical care or access to family, to physical or emotional abuse, are improperly represented, or have little or no rights in court. This is why we need to insure that comprehensive immigration reform includes a restoration of due process protections to our immigration enforcement policies. You can ask members of Congress to address comprehensive immigration reform at www.justiceforimmigrants.org Questions? Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com

This article is the first of a series I'd like to present to you on "Healthy Lifestyles can be Fun". On this first one, I'd like to focus on the importance of exercise. Many people exercise to control weight and get in better physical condition. This is a good reason to be active. Something to consider, exercise and stress management are closely linked. Exercise can be an extremely effective stress reliever for several reasons. One reason is it can be an outlet for frustration, when life's annoyances or frustrating situations build up you can feel stressed or experience low grade anger. More high energy forms of exercise like boxing, martial arts and weight training can provide an effective release of these negative emotions. Our local Tri-County YMCA offers all of these classes and provides a social support while you are doing it. Adding this type of exercise can turn otherwise potentially unhealthy emotions into motivation for increased health and well-being. Physical activity can also act as a distraction by taking your mind off of your problems and either redirect it on the activity at hand or get you into a type of mind, body and spirit state. Exercise usually involves a change of scenery as well, either taking you to a gym, a park, a scenic mountain, a biking trail, cross-country skiing trail, sliding hill or a neighborhood sidewalk, all of which can be pleasant, low stress places. The benefits of the social aspect of exercise are well-documented. Because exercise and physical activity can often involve others, you can enjoy a double dose of stress-relief with the combined benefits of exercise and fun with friends. Whether you are in a class with others, working out in the gym with a buddy, playing softball in a league or taking a walk or hike with a friend, having others work out with you can make you feel good as well as help motivate you to push harder to get a better workout without it feeling so much like 'work'. Lastly, while stress can cause illness, illness can also cause stress, with the physical pain, missed activities, feelings of isolation and other costs that come with it. So improving your overall health and longevity with exercise can also save you a great deal of stress in the short run (by strengthening your immunity to colds, the flu and other minor illnesses) and in the long run by helping you stay healthier longer, and enjoy life more because of it. Some guidelines for getting started, start slow with maybe a 15 minute work out three times per week and increase your exercise routine time each week by 5 minutes until you are at 30 – 45 minutes for each work out. So grab a fellow parishioner, family member or long lost friend and start exercising!

"Investing in Women in Central America" with Katherine Wojtan from Mary's Pence

1st Sunday of Lent – February 17 - 9:45-10:45 am at Good Shepherd Church -
N88 W17658 Christman Rd. in Menomonee Falls:

What happens when women know their rights, have lives free of violence, and have resources to invest in their livelihoods? They gain confidence, grow their businesses, keep their children in school, and have a bigger voice in shaping their community. Mary's Pence ESPERA program works with existing women's groups in Central America to create locally owned community lending pools. Learn how a locally driven holistic approach changes lives. Katherine Wojtan is Executive Director of Mary's Pence. She worked in Human Resources and Organization Development before making the move to nonprofits 4 years ago - taking the position with Mary's Pence. Her passion is spreading the work of social justice, and about the power of nonviolence. She has facilitated retreats on nonviolence, and served as a core team member founding the Minnesota Peace Team.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Highlighting another opportunity for youth and adults to become involved in our faith community's weekend celebrations of Eucharist— Ushers.

Ushers are also ministers of hospitality who assist with all aspects of Mass, supporting and attending to the needs of the assembly. They welcome all, offering them an order of worship, seating late comers, coordinating the collection of gifts, helping with the communion procession, assisting those who are sick or have other needs and distributing the bulletins after Mass. Ushers are assigned on an every other month basis to a particular Eucharist for that entire month. They serve as a member of a team with (2) captains. Ushers arrive a half hour before Mass and should plan on staying about 15 minutes after Mass. More Ushers are currently needed for all Mass times. More Ushers are always needed for Christmas and Mass on the Grass. The Contact person is Tom Pinzl, 251-4713.

Fields of Hope & Dreams Community Gardens

Garden volunteers, staff members, and members of the Buildings and Grounds committee are looking at designs and locations for an herb garden which will be added to our two existing vegetable gardens. Planning takes time, but its proceeding. Secondarily we will need a name for this new herb garden. Do you have any suggestions?

The idea for naming our first garden – Field of Dreams, was reminiscent of the Kevin Costner movie where he was directed to build a baseball diamond in the middle of his cornfield by a heavenly voice whispering: “if you build it, they will come” The name seemed appropriate for this new undertaking. Our second garden – Field of Hope was named so people could envision St. James being surrounded by hopes and dreams. Some people thought it might be appropriate to name this new herb garden as a remembrance to Jerry Gnadt, a past trustee and someone instrumental at the start of our garden project. Then John Bohdalik, our long time maintenance supervisor, passed away. He too, helped develop the gardens and was always willing to lend a hand or tool when needed. Lately, some younger parish members have asked if we couldn’t do something to honor Aaron Zagorski, the youth who passed away after the holidays. With all the joy, pain, sorrow and delight of these parish members, as well as others, past, present and to come maybe we need a name befitting the dying and rising or transition, we all will go through. This is a tough assignment, but with all of the thoughtful people at St. James, something appropriate will surface. If you have any ideas or suggestions: call (414) 587-1202 or email pschneider@wi.rr.com Thank you for your support and if you’d like to join our group, you can call or email the same mentioned above.
