A View from another Pew

As Daryl mentioned last week in Pew Views, the Church commemorates World Day for Consecrated Life this Sunday, February 6th. As you may have guessed, this is why I chose this date to celebrate my 50 years as a School Sister of St. Francis.

I felt called to religious life as young as 4th grade. I followed that call after High School when I went to our Motherhouse, (that is what they called a house of training to be a vowed religious in those days). I was received in 1961 into the School Sisters of St. Francis & received a new name, S. Ann Claudine and new clothes ( a habit; called this because you wore it everyday, so it became a habit in your life). In our community we count our years of living as a Sister from this time. Two years later, I took the vows of poverty, chastity & obedience. These are promises to live a life of leaving behind the desire for material things, the possibility of a husband (for me; a wife, for men in religious orders) and children and the attitude that I would always follow my own decisions. That is a very simple way to explain the 3 vows.

For me, the vow of poverty freed me from ownership of material things. I use a car (for the 40 min. ride to work every day), but my religious community owns it. The best part of this vow is that we hold everything in common. It was very evident this past summer, when I moved into a house with 5 other Sister. We pooled together all our belongings to set up a Hospitality House near Alverno College. It was great. I also contribute to the whole community especially in the care of our elderly Sisters here in the U.S., but also to the formation of the young sisters in Latin America & India. The community in turn, educated me, encourages & supports me in my ministry & spirituality.

By the vow of chastity I am free to be available to many people. Yes, there are times I miss having one intimate person who is always there for me and I miss the joy of children. One time I gave a talk to 130 High school Youth at a parish away from here. One of students asked "What do you do when you are attracted to someone of the opposite gender? I answered by saying, "I thank God for the feelings, that I am a human being. I don't act on those feelings, but I am happy that I have them."

The vow of obedience has been the most challenging for me. Since I was the oldest of 4 children, I was used to giving orders, now I have to take them. Fortunately I entered religious life in the early 60s and the changes came quickly for us right after Vatican II. I would be happy to share that struggle & resulting joy that came from our renewal. Just ask me.

The deepest part of the vow of obedience though is to follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit, which all of us are called to do through our Baptism. The Holy Spirit does speak to us in many ways: scripture, the Sacraments, other people, our own inner prayer life. For me specifically, it is in the leaders of my community.

I would like to challenge any single women to think about living your life in this way. It is very fulfilling.

I have never regretted any of my 50 years as a consecrated woman in the Church.

S. Carol Ann Jaeger, SSSF

Get Rid of Those Negative Feelings!!

Have you been hurt or angered by the Church? There are others who may share many of your feelings. Please give the Church and yourself another chance by joining us at six weekly sessions called Catholics Returning Home, on Thursday evenings, at 7 p.m., hosted at Good Shepherd beginning March 10, 2011. Former non-practicing Catholics will share their stories and listen to your feelings and concerns. There is no obligation, and perhaps some of your questions will be answered. For more information, please call Laverne (262/251-3968) or Shirley (262/251-3888).

“I Came that They May Have Life” - Living Christ’s Message of Love for All – Sunday, February 13, 6:30 to 8 pm, St. James Community Center

Our Church teaches that all life is sacred from the moment of conception through natural death. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end; but in an age when we can do almost anything, how do we decide what we ought to do? Our speakers Fr. Art Heinze and Vicki Thorn, Foundress of Project Rachel, will provide us with an understanding of the Church’s moral teaching which calls us to a consistent and real respect for all human life. All are invited.

Thank You All!!

Many thanks to the 250 folks who attended our 15th annual “Chili Thing”. The food, fun and entertainment warmed everyone’s heart. We were able to raise $2,273 for St. James Parish.

See You All Next Year!

SAVE THE DATE!!

Sunday March 6th 5:30PM at St James
A Spiritual “Revival” with the St Martin de Porres Choir.
A Free Will offering will go to the St Martin de Porres Choir.

Speaker will be Fr. John Celichowski, Provincial Minister, St. Joseph of the Capuchin Order. Fr John is the previous pastor from St Martin de Porres.

We will be trying to get all the previous Pastors involved with the Sister Parish to attend. Social to Follow the Revival in the Gathering Place. More information to follow. Please pass the word along and save the date. What a great way to interact with St Martin de Porres & to kick off Lent!!

Attention ACOLYTES & DISTRIBUTORS

It’s almost that time again. Please send your vacation dates for April – June to Gail and Greg by February 20th so we can begin working on the next schedule.

chickgmm@aol.com and gregbartz@wwdb.org.

Please also include your availability for Holy Week.

HOW ARE WE DOING?

Well after the first 6 months of the 2010/2011 fiscal year, I’d like to share with you our financial position. Listed below is a snapshot of where we currently sit in a number of essential areas:

|                        | December: | YTD      | Budget: |
|------------------------|------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| Envelope               | 124,120          | 500,926         | 498,020        |
| Offertory              | 9,869            | 32,398          | 33,714         |
| Mortgage               | 22,106           | 90,324          | 102,624        |
| Other Income           | 50,890    | *286,487 | 148,436 |
| Totals:         | 206,985   | 910,135  | 782,794 |
| Total Expenses: | 143,780          | 724,037         | 695,234        |

* = In November we received a donation from the Estate of Grace Zindl for $132,000 which inflates in “other Income” category well beyond budget expectations.

As always thank you for your support of St. James and for your continued dedication to who we are and what we do.

Warmest Regards, Charles

Enhance Your Sunday Readings

Enhance your understanding of the Sunday readings by preparing to hear them at Mass. You can do this with the leaflets called Sunday by Sunday. They are in the racks of the 3 entrances to church. Take the whole packet which goes to Lent.

We are postponing the Aluminum Can Drive 1 week, until AFTER YOUR SUPERBOWL PARTIES!

Hopefully you've saved your aluminum cans for us from past football parties and will do so again as you cheer on the Packers! The Dumpster will be here the weekend of February 12th & 13th.

This is an ongoing fundraiser to assist our youth and adults who are going on the Mission trip this summer to Kokomo, IN. Miller Compressing so generously provides us with the dumpster in support of Mission Trip every other month throughout the year and has done this for many years. Your aluminum can contributions over the past 3 years have provided our Mission Trip participants annually with between $2,235 and $3,189 which goes towards scholarship for those wanting to go who may not be able to afford to do so otherwise. We are grateful for any donations you are able to help us with. Please keep us in mind throughout the year as collections are usually the first weekend of the even numbered months. It also helps us a great deal if you dump the cans out of the plastic bags if you are able so we can get the maximum credit.

The dumpster is usually picked up by 7 AM on Monday morning. Please do not drop cans off prior to having the dumpster here or after the dumpster has been removed. Thank you for your continued support of those going on Mission who help to spread the good news! The dumpster will return April 2nd & 3rd if you miss it this weekend.

Hamilton High School invites you to attend this year's musical Little Shop of Horrors!

Performances will be in the Hamilton Fine Arts Center on February 10, 11 and 12 at 7 pm and Sunday, February 13 at 2 pm. Ticket prices are $8 for adults and $5 for students and senior citizens. There will be a "buy one, get one free" promotion for senior citizens at the Sunday matinee only. For information, please call the HHS Drama Box Office at (262) 246-6471, ext. 1552.

Come support the Hamilton Drama Program and join us for a classic fried chicken dinner on Saturday, February 12 in the HHS Cafeteria from 5:30 – 6:30 pm. Then stay and see the Saturday performance of Little Shop of Horrors! Tickets for the performance will be sold separately at the Hamilton Fine Arts Center.

Chicken dinner tickets are $8 and include fried chicken, sides, beverage and dessert. Since a dinner count is needed, this event is by advance ticket purchase or reservation only. (Deadline Sunday, February 6) Contact Laurie Cox at 246-8491 or lcx@wi.rr.com for reservations and information. Thanks for your support and hope you enjoy the show!

Field of Dreams Community Garden Meeting

Spring is right around the corner and that means planning our Field of Dreams garden. Our community garden volunteers will be having a Spring (yes Spring) planting meeting on Wednesday, February 9th in St. James' classroom #8 starting at 7:00 p.m. All volunteers from last year are encouraged to attend and if you weren't involved last year, but have an interest in gardening or learning about gardening, please come and join us for the start of this year's garden. Last year was the initial year of our garden project and according to the Cooperating Churches of Sussex (CCOS) food pantry; it was an overwhelming success due to all the vegetables that were donated. The more helping hands we have, the less work for any one individual and the more produce we can donate to the food pantry. If you are interested in joining our group, but can't make the meeting, there is a sign up sheet in the Information/Kitchenette located in the church's gathering space or you can contact Paul Schneider at (414) 587 – 1202 or email at pschneider@wi.rr.com. We look forward to see you.

Living the Gospel Mini-Series: Living as Family in Community

In Scripture, Jesus tells us to love one another, but is God really asking me to love everyone?

- What does it mean to live in family and community?
- Who genuinely are my sisters and brothers?
- Where can I find God in the strife of family and culture?
- Why should I care?

Human boundaries whether political, cultural or based on fear limit our ability to live in true community, yet the message of Jesus is one of inclusion and participation. What does that mean? How far do we need to stretch? Is it possible to break free of boundaries that limit our loving relationship with God and each other?

In this mini series on Living the Gospel, we will explore the call to love one another as one human family. We invite you to come and join us as we rededicate ourselves to Living the Gospel message.

Living the Gospel is a four session Scripture based small group discussion plus service immersion experience offered by the 3 parish cluster of St. James, St. Mary and Good Shepherd. The series will be held 7 to 8:30 pm on Feb 10, 17, and 24 with an outreach experience on Mar 3.

One session will be held at each church. The deadline to register for this mini series is Monday, February 7. To register contact Paul or Debra Schneider at djschneider@wi.rr.com or call 414-550-2167 with your name, email address and/or phone number.

Together we will explore how we can Live the Gospel.
