From The Servant's Quarters

❖ I recall a poster used by the recruitment office of St. Lawrence Seminary when I was a student there, many moons ago! It said, "The Fisher Of Men Uses No Hooks!" When Jesus recruited the disciples to join him in his efforts at preaching the message "Repent and believe in the gospel," he also offered mission.

With his invitation "Come will make people," he embrace faith as and then to them a sense of With his invitation after me and I you fishers of called them to repentance and their way of life extend the same blessing to others by word and example. Of all the images he could have chosen - teacher; reformer, builder, planter and so on - Jesus chose the image of fishing. Obviously this was a profession familiar to those he called to follow him, but there are many good lessons that any disciple might learn from someone who fishes for a living.

❖ Regardless of whether a person fishes with a net or a pole, with lures or by trolling the waters, the fisher must go to where the fish are and offer them something that will entice them to take the bait. Disciples too, can be more effective when they are willing to be mobile. Often this requires leaving the comfort of the institution to venture into those public and private places where people live their lives. Disciples have been entrusted with the "bait" of the good news, which becomes more attractive when it is paired with their own good example.

❖ Another lesson disciples might learn from fishers is to work without discriminating as to the worthiness of others. There is no sign at the end of a fishing line that says "Good fish only," nor can disciples have any prejudice as they follow their commission to go out to all the world and tell the good news of salvation.

❖ Fishers do not keep regular hours. Fish do not make appointments, so those who gather them must accommodate their "schedules." Those who fish successfully are persistent. They cultivate the fine art of waiting. As they preach the essential message handed on to them by Jesus, "Repent and believe in the gospel," they will also learn to wait for the seed of that message to take root and grow in others. As we prayed during Advent, "We wait in joyful hope," trusting that God's grace can eventually lead us all to repentance and faith.

THANK YOU ALL!

Words cannot express the feeling I had this past weekend with all the people that came to say good-bye to me. You just do not know how many people you meet in 32 years. Thank you all so much for your kind words, gifts and cards. It was amazing. I will miss you all (although I might see some of you once in awhile). Again thank you and may God bless and watch over all of you.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

Mark your calendar for this coming Wednesday, January 25th then set your alarm Tuesday night for 5:00 a.m. to allow enough time for you to get to St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Menomonee Falls for the start of the second semester of THAT MAN IS YOU! This is much more than a Bible study. It is a men’s leadership development program that presents current day problems then helps men address them using modern scientific statistics and historical Biblical principles to provide solutions to today’s problems. The program starts at 5:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast and networking with over 50 men from our cluster parishes of: St. James, St. Mary’s and Good Shepard. Then a multimedia presentation is shown, along with handouts, followed by breakout sessions of smaller groups of men to discuss the material presented. A closing prayer ends the session at 7:00 a.m. arming men for the challenges of the day. This second semester will continue on Wednesdays at 5:30 to 7:00 and run for 13 weeks. For questions call: (414) 587-1202 or email pschneider@wi.rr.com

Field of Dreams Community Garden

Despite the crazy weather conditions, combined with our everyday worries, along with the fragile global situation, which may include: economic, political, military, or environmental concerns - our garden - remains the best place to "be" for many of our volunteers. Even with the snow, our gardeners are planning and dreaming of the solitude the garden offers. And for many, there is a peace, a dream, a hopeful expectation of this spring and the start to a new garden. Many have indoor plants, flowers, cacti and herbs to remind them of what's to come in a couple of months. Some are anxious to begin indoor starter plants that can be transplanted into our garden or sold at our spring plant sale/fund raiser. Many find joy in reading (yes reading) seed catalogs, looking for new varieties or something different to plant. It might look dark and cold outside, but our garden volunteers have created a piece of that outside garden, if not in their homes, than in their hearts and dreams. A place to "be". Where do you find your peace, your solitude? Your "Garden of Eden", during these cold winter days? If you would like to experience some of this garden thinking join like minded volunteers of the Field of Dreams community garden. To join call (414) 587 - 1202 or email pschneider@wi.rr.com And mark your calendars for May's 19th/20th spring Plant Sale.
