A Thumbnail Sketch of Fr. Mike Moran

At Miserecordia Hospital, in the heart of Milwaukee, Michael Francis Loeffler was born August 11, 1952.

What does that have to do with you? He is now your new pastor! There's a German hiding behind the Irish name of Moran! Though there is still some Irish, thank God, from my mother's side, the Rohans.

Tragically my father contracted cancer and died when I was two years old. Mom remarried when I was five and I became a Moran! Four brothers resulted from this second marriage: Brian, Kevin, Timothy and Thomas, (and several golden retrievers throughout the years!) We lived next door to my paternal grandmother and directly across the street from Holy Angels Church in Milwaukee. These proved to be major influences in my hearing the call to become a priest.

High School was at St. Lawrence Seminary, Mt. Calvary Wisconsin. I often say that those were the best years of my life, so far! I became a Capuchin after graduation and had most of my seminary training with this branch of Franciscans. I transferred to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee when I had two years left to complete my theological studies. I was ordained by Archbishop Weakland at St. John Cathedral, June 25, 1982.

During the past twenty-nine years I have served parishes in West Bend, Sheboygan Falls, Fond du Lac, Campbellsport, and Waupun.

I enjoy the great out of doors, all bodies of water, especially the ocean, reading and travel. And of course much time is devoted to my good buddy, Comet.

I look forward to getting to know all of you and being a part of your dynamic community of faith. Please feel free to let me know how I can serve you and assist you in living your faith.

*Blessings and Peace to you.
Fr. Mike Moran & Comet*

Starting in July Our New Coordinator of Adult & Family Ministry Peg Flahive

Greetings! I look forward to joining the parish staff as Director of Adult and Family Ministry. I know I have “big shoes” to fill following Sister Carol Ann's dedicated ministry over the years! I have had the honor to work with the School Sisters of St. Francis the past seven years and have a great appreciation for the service that Sister Carol Ann will provide to retired sisters. Prior to working with the SSSF, I served parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in different ministries within the Department for Parishes. Milwaukee has always been my home and I love living in Wisconsin. My family belongs to St. Monica Parish in Whitefish Bay. I look forward to working with families and people of all ages at St. James. Thank you for the warm welcome I have received so far!

Lenten Service Experience – Matthew 25 Project

Thank you all for your donations of food, drink, clothing, personal care items, Bibles, reading glasses and Christian literature during this past Lenten season. Some parishioners deepened their Matthew 25 Lenten journey through service projects where they not only donated items here at church; they also went out and performed service work for others. During Lent there was a purple draped cross at the back of the church with pockets containing 5" x 7" cards with a service project listed on each card. For those who wanted to deepen their Lenten experience, they took a card and performed some sort of service for those in need. People who performed a service were asked to write us a brief note letting us know how things went. There remains a basket in the gathering space on the fireplace to drop off notes of reflection from service experiences. Here is one such note:

"I washed feet at Repairers of the Breach. It was a magical experience for me. I did this after reading a book titled: Same Kind of Different As Me by Ron Hall, Denver Moore with Lynn Vincent. I felt that God was speaking to me. I have to admit that when I was driving down there I was a little apprehensive. But as soon as I walked in the door, I met a young girl who was so delightful. She totally broke the ice for me. This experience was the highlight of my Lenten journey. I will do this again next year and I highly recommend that you try it."

Members of the Human Concerns Committee have heard some wonderful comments and the service work continues. A number of people signed up to help out in the Field of Dreams garden this summer while others volunteered at our priority relationship organizations such as: Cooperating Churches of Sussex's (CCOS) food pantry, Hebron House, Repairers of the Breach, St. Martin de Porres, Interfaith and others. If you have performed some service through this program we would like to hear from you. And for those who missed this past Lenten year's service experience, you might want to try it during next year's Lent.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

The Activities Committee has scheduled the following events:

- The Fall Bus Trip ~ Saturday, September 24, 2011
- Ladies Night Out ~ Thursday, October 20, 2011

Watch for more information in the next Newsletter and in the bulletins as it becomes closer to the events.

Field of Dreams Community Garden

Thank you all for your support of our May plant sale held at church. It was a success with many parishioners walking away with some great starter plants. The proceeds from the sale help us purchase the seeds, equipment and tools to maintain and work the garden so we don't have to rely on church funds. We want to be self-sustaining and work towards helping St. James along with the CCOS food pantry clientele. Saturday, June 4th was the first harvest day of the Field of Dreams garden for 2011. Ten volunteers showed up to finish planting plants and we harvested six gallon bags of spinach, seven gallon bags of radish, and eight gallon bags of lettuce leaves. These were dropped off at the Cooperating Churches of Sussex's (CCOS) food pantry. This was the start of what we hope will be an expansion of last year's great harvest. We will continue to have harvest each Saturday throughout summer and fall when the tomatoes, peppers, beans, peas and other vegetables start to produce. Of course, there is always weeding. If you would like to help out or get involved with the Field of Dreams garden volunteers you can contact Paul Schneider at (414) 587-1202 or pschneider@wi.rr.com. There are no commitments. Volunteers usually meet the first Thursday of each month at church and work each Saturday morning from 8:00 a.m. until noon while the garden is producing. You will meet a great bunch of volunteers who are happy to share knowledge of gardening and various plants, seeds, and shortcuts that can help you at home. And we encourage all parishioners who plant home gardens to "Plant an Extra Row" in your garden to add to our Field of Dreams produce that we take to the CCOS food pantry. Just drop off your extra produce at St. James on Saturday mornings throughout the gardening year and we will add it to our produce. Thank you for supporting St. James' Field of Dreams garden and the CCOS food pantry.

COMING TO ST. JAMES ON SEPTEMBER 18...

THE RESURRECTION DANCE THEATER OF HAITI!

From the poorest country in the western hemisphere comes the incredible power of drumming and dance performed by former street children of Haiti! St. James will be privileged to host this renowned international troupe on Sunday, September 18, 2011 at 2 p.m.

Through drumming and storytelling the Resurrection Dance Theater incorporates traditional Haitian and African movements into a modern setting. With pulsating drums and incredible acrobatic dance the troupe takes audiences on a journey of excitement, hope, and rhythm where long-lasting memories are created. Audience participation is encouraged and makes this a perfect event for the entire family!

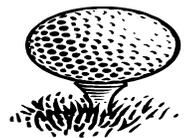

Since the earthquake of January 2010 destroyed two of the homes that housed the boys and some of the young men from this dance troupe, the Resurrection Dance Theater of Haiti has dedicated their tour performances to raising funds to rebuild St. Joseph's Home for Boys and have named their 2011-12 world tour, "Resurrection from the Rubble."

Mark your calendars for Sunday, September 18, 2 p.m. and plan on attending this unique performance here at St. James.

Dear Friends,

Jesus said, "I will lay down my life for my sheep"

John 10:15

When Jesus laid down his life to protect his sheep he taught us that the shepherd lays down his life to protect his sheep. By Christ's sacrifice, we are united at his flock, a people of God. In this unity we have been given a pure gift from God, the gift to shepherd those around us. Each and every one of us needs to be shepherds, shepherds of one another, and more importantly, shepherds of our children and young people. We are all connected as one flock, one people, God's family, in companionship with the Lord.

As Christ protects us from spiritual predators, we are reminded that there are very real reasons that the sheep, our children, need protection. The reality is that there are those who want to harm the sheep, the vulnerable, our children and youth. We warn of these dangers, not to offend or to scare but to protect. It is when we understand and make ourselves aware of the reality of these dangers that we can truly comprehend, trust and strive to imitate the Shepherd who laid down his life for us and protects us always.

The children and youth of today are our future and it is our moral obligation to do everything in our power to be good shepherds and to remain vigilant in their protection. At all times, we are all called to reflect on the need to be good shepherds, to protect our children and to safeguard them from harm. Let us always remind ourselves that as a people of God, we each have a role to play in protecting our children and youth. It is the responsibility of clergy, educators and all adult role models, to be aware of the dangers surrounding our children and youth. We must always continue to show them the way forward by protecting them, encouraging them in their personal development and providing them with the necessary resources for their growth and success.

Pattie Loehrer
Safe Environment Coordinator ~ Archdiocese of Milwaukee

What Everyone Should Know About Sexual Abuse

- All children are vulnerable to sexual abuse regardless of ethnicity, cultural background or economic background.
- All children have an inherent right to feel loved, valued and protected.
- Often there are no physical signs of sexual abuse.
- Many cases of child sexual abuse go unreported because the child is afraid or ashamed to tell anyone what has happened.
- Offenders often threaten to hurt the victim or the victim's family members.
- Many children believe that are to blame for the abuse.
- A victim is never to blame for the abuse. The victim cannot prevent abuse; only the offender can.
- There is little evidence that children make false allegations of abuse; what is more common is a child's denying that abuse has happened when it did.

Preventing Sexual Abuse

- Supervise! Know who your child is talking to at all times.
- Parental controls – use them and learn about them.
- Tell your child you will monitor his or her relationships. Be sure to follow up with your promise.
- If you don't know about the Internet and cyber sex, become informed.
- Young people need to know their bodies are sacred. Talk openly about safe versus unsafe touch.
- A good rule of thumb: If someone enjoys being around your child more than you do, there is a problem.
- Nothing is more sacred than communication. Research points to it as being key. Good communication assumes mutual respect regardless of any information a child might share.
- Open discussion about sexual matters, although it may be uncomfortable, needs to be pursued. If not to you, to whom will your child turn?
- Know the adults, peers and the families of peers with whom your child relates. Ask about all that happened with your child when you were not with him or her. Be curious.
- Be there and know where your child is and what he or she is doing. Do not assume to know anything about anyone.
- Show your child that it is okay to say no when someone he or she knows and cares about does something he or she does not like.
- Set and respect family boundaries.
- Speak up when you see "warning-sign" behaviors.
- Teach your child that secrets about touching are not okay.
- List who to call for advice, information or help if you should need it.

Health Ministry News

During this summer season, I would like to share information that will help protect you and your family from skin cancer. Prevention is the key. Most people enjoy time in the sun during July and August, but the proper precautions to prevent skin damage from the sun are a key component for the maintenance of good health.

Recently, I read an article that discussed this topic. Here are some facts worth sharing that have been compiled by the Skin Cancer Foundation:

- ◆ Skin cancer is the most common form of cancer in the United States. More than 3.5 million cases in 2 million people are diagnosed annually.
- ◆ Each year there are more new cases of skin cancer than the combined incidence of cancers of the breast, prostate, lung and colon.
- ◆ One in five Americans will develop skin cancer in the course of a lifetime.
- ◆ Basal cell carcinoma (BCC) is the most common form of skin cancer; an estimated 2.8 million BCC's are diagnosed annually in the United States. They are rarely fatal, but can be highly disfiguring if allowed to grow.
- ◆ Squamous cell carcinoma (SCC) is the second most common form of skin cancer.
- ◆ Basal Cell and Squamous Cell cancers are the two major forms of non-melanoma skin cancer. Between 40-50% of Americans who live to age 65 will have either skin cancer at least once.
- ◆ About 90% of non-melanoma skin cancers are associated with exposure to ultraviolet radiation from the sun.
- ◆ Contrary to popular belief, 80% of a person's lifetime sun-exposure is not acquired before age 18; only about 23% of lifetime exposure occurs by age 18.
- ◆ Melanoma (skin cancer in deep layers of skin) accounts for about 3% of skin cancer cases; but it causes more than 75% of skin cancer deaths.
- ◆ The vast majority of mutations found in melanoma are caused by ultraviolet radiation.
- ◆ The survival rate for patients whose melanoma is detected early, before the tumor has penetrated the epidermis, is about 99%.
- ◆ One blistering sunburn in childhood or adolescence more than doubles a persons chances of developing melanoma later in life.
- ◆ Melanoma is seven times more common between ages of 10-20 than it is between 0-10 years of age.
- ◆ Asian American and African American melanoma patients have a greater tendency than Caucasians to present with advanced disease at the time of diagnosis.

Myth Mash... What's the Truth?

MYTH! If I use a sunscreen with a high SPF I'm all set.

Don't simply look for a sunscreen with SPF (Sun Protection Factor) of 15 or higher—you need a "broad spectrum" product that protects against both types of harmful rays, UVA and UVB. SPF indicates that the sunscreen provides protection from the sun's UVB rays. To protect against UVA rays, look for some combination of the following UVA blocking ingredients: zinc oxide, titanium dioxide, oxybenzone, avobenzone, and Mexoryl™ SX. Since no sunscreen blocks 100% of dangerous ultraviolet rays, always wear protective clothing and avoid midday sun exposure.

MYTH!

A cool breeze on my skin helps prevent sunburn.

Cool breezes, swimming and comfortable temperatures can make your skin feel cool—even in direct sunlight. But don't be fooled. You're still receiving the same dose of UV radiation as when winds are light and temperatures are hot. So, you must use sunscreen to protect yourself—even when your skin doesn't feel hot.

No matter what your skin type, everyone should follow these essential UV sun safety tips:

- Seek shade between 10 am and 4 pm.
- Use sunscreen or daily moisturizer with SPF of 15% or higher daily
- Wear long sleeves and pants, a wide-brimmed hat and sunglasses.
- Sand, water, ice, snow reflect UV rays and increase your UV exposure by up to 80%

For more detailed information regarding your specific skin type, protection and prevention of skin cancer, please consult the website listed below.

Thank You's Received from Our Human Concerns Ministry

Here are a few excerpts of thank you's that our Human Concern's Ministry received from our tithing program ...
