PEW VIEW
The Smell of God

What does God smell like? Pleasant aromas titillate our senses and often evoke happy memories. A bonfire brings forth remembrances of childhood camping experiences. The scent of lilac stirs the image of a first love. Blooming flowers and light dew on freshly mown grass remind us of warm summer days. For many people the smell of incense reminds them of the presence of God as they recall benedictions and Eucharistic adoration.

This Sunday afternoon our church will be filled with the sweet aroma of Chrism, the holy scented oil used to anoint over 150 young people in the sacrament of confirmation. Confirmation is a sacrament associated with the power of the Holy Spirit. "Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit" are the words used in the anointing. But what does the Holy Spirit look like? The word "spirit" has that intangible and transparent sense to it. It is often compared to wind – you can feel it but you can't see it. Even St. Luke describes the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost with earthy signs of a strong driving wind and burning tongues of fire. Today we use chrisim --- olive oil scented with balsam and blessed by the Archbishop during holy week.

Chrism has a powerful, pleasing aroma. It is the smell of God.

We are no strangers to being anointed with chrisim. Immediately after the pouring of water in baptism we were anointed with this fragrant oil. If generous amounts of this oil are smeared into the hair the scent will last for many days. Parents of newly baptized infants will notice the pleasant aroma of this oil in the nursery for up to a week or more. When they sniff this "holy air" they should be reminded of the consecration of their babies and say, "Ah, the smell of God!"

Bishop Sklba, who will be with us for confirmation today, is known to use generous amounts of oil in anointing the candidates. The oil often drips down the face and fills the pours, seeping into the very being of the newly confirmed who should not have any doubts that they are filled with the presence of God. With over 150 being confirmed the sweet smelling scent of this sacred oil should fill our cavernous church as we all breathe in "the smell of God!"

When our newly confirmed youth return to school on Monday no doubt some of their classmates may wrinkle their noses and ask unsuspectingly, "What's that smell?!" Without hesitation they should know, in word and deed, through kindness and love, in suffering and sacrifice, that this "smell of God" indicates the presence of the Holy Spirit among them.

We have been anointed with "the chrisim of salvation, so that, united with God's people, we may remain forever a member of Christ who is Priest, Prophet, and King." What does God smell like? Hopefully we emit the sweet smelling aroma of the presence of God.

Congratulations to our newly anointed young people! You smell good!

ST. BEN'S MEAL

It is time for us to donate food for the St. Ben's Meal Program. We will be going this coming Wednesday, May 18th. Even though the weather is starting to warm up, there are still people who need a good nutritious meal, so hot meals, like soup and/or casseroles are always good. The guests at St. Ben's appreciate anything that you can give, hot or cold salads, any large cans of fruit or vegetables or if you are making your favorite meal, make a little extra so that you can bring part of it for the meal program.

You do not have to sign up to be a part of this ministry, all we ask is that your donations be at St. James before 4:00 pm. Our drivers will be here between 3:45 and 4:00 pm. The drivers will leave promptly at 4:00 pm.

We strongly suggest that you use pans and/or dishes that can be thrown away if necessary

Health & Wellness – Speaker

Don't miss Dr. John Whitcomb's talk on health and wellness next Sunday, May 22nd at 9:15 a.m. Stay after the 8:15 Mass or come early for his presentation and go to the 10:15 Mass afterwards. Educated at John Hopkins and Yale University, Dr. Whitcomb has spent the last 30 years at St. Luke's, Froedert, and Mt. Sinai as an emergency physician and is currently lead physician at Aurora, directing their "Wellness" program. He has been a frequent speaker at the UCC church for the last five years where he is a member. Dr. Whitcomb will give a half hour talk on what we can do to stay healthy and well and prevent, diminish, or slow certain symptoms and diseases through everyday lifestyle changes. He will then accept and answer specific questions from attendees. Please plan to attend for your own health and wellness.

Matthew 25 Service Experiences

Did you take a service card from the purple draped Cross at back of the church during Lent? If you did and have completed your service, we'd like to hear of your Lenten experience. Simply write a brief note on a card and drop it off in the basket located on the fireplace in the gathering space. We'd like to share your thoughts with others to encourage more people to take a card next year. Reflections will be posted in upcoming bulletins and newsletters.

Field of Dreams Community Garden – Plant Sale

Next weekend (i.e. May 21st/22nd) after each Mass, the Field of Dreams community garden volunteers will be holding a plant sale on the patio to raise funds for our garden. Bring some extra cash as you look over the unique selection of vegetable plants and flowers our gardeners have grown just for you. Instead of purchasing plants from the nursery, help support our parish's garden and the Cooperating Churches of Sussex's (CCOS) food pantry by your free will offering. Remember all produce grown by our Field of Dreams gardeners will be donated to the CCOS food pantry. So be prepared to leave church with your pockets a little lighter and your trunk a little fuller as you plan for your garden. You can "plant an extra row" of vegetables in your home garden to add to our Field of Dreams donation of produce. The weather is finally warming so it's time to get outside, enjoy the sunshine, and do some gardening.

"All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need." Acts 2:44

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal raises more than $7.6 million annually to support archdiocesan ministries and programs that benefit 210 parishes and more than 643,000 Catholics throughout southeastern Wisconsin.

Stewardship is relational. None of us exists in a vacuum. We are responsible to our God and to each other every day of our lives. If stewardship calls us to share, obviously life is not just about us and "our" parish. By participating in the Appeal we come together to combine our shared resources to accomplish much more than we can as individual parish communities.

In 2010, approximately 20% of Catholics registered in our parishes participated in the CSA. Imagine the good we could do if each parish increased participation by just 4 or 5%!

The early Christians reached out to support their greater community. Now it's our turn.

For information about ministries and programs supported by the Catholic Stewardship Appeal go to <http://www.archmil.org/catholicappeal/home.htm>
