"Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." - Lk 6:36

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass @2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

OI P

"As Everyday Stewards, we are always looking for the small actions that make big differences. God takes what we offer in a simple action and performs miracles. The words of Jesus to Jairus should be in our minds everyday as we go forth into a chaotic world where things are unsure:

'Do not be afraid; just have faith."

Messages from our PA

- The Scripture passages this weekend challenge us to take the highest road--the road of the Cross-- the road of mercy and forgiveness. In the Old Testament, David does the unthinkable opposite of what all warriors seeking an advantage would do: he has King Saul in striking distance, almost in his grasp, and he walks away, sparing his life. Jesus teaches his disciples, us, to do the unthinkable: to love our enemies and do good to them. And St. Paul sums it up by affirming that through the "last Adam", Christ, we can, with God's grace and power, rise above our natural, earthly impulses, and "bear the image of the heavenly one."
- Here is the latest update on our missionary family, the Glafckes. Due the the current political and social unrest in Haiti, many of you are concerned for the Glafckes safety. I received the following text from Matt at 5:46 am last Sunday: "We are very much safe... Waiting in Miami to see if we head to Haiti in a week or so. And if not we would head back to Louisiana for a longer wait and other possible discernment. God bless, Gerry... Hope we didn't give you a sleepless night." Any parishioners who wish to follow the Glafckes unfolding story can check out their blogposts at www.laughkey.blogspot.com.
- How many of you, like me, have had numerous friends and family members suffer from and succumb to cancer? Last year, and hopefully this might become an annual event, St. James sponsored a team for the American Cancer Society's "Relay for Life". If you and your family would like to join the St. James team to secure pledges and participate in this year's walk scheduled for Friday, May 31st & Saturday, June 1st; or make a donation; or just find our more details; contact Kristin Kebis, our St. James Coordinator of Child Ministry, at 262-253-2908, or at kebisk@archmil.org.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate, Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

PRAYER NETWORK - If you have a prayer request, please send an email to Terri Grimmer at: tmg1123@yahoo.com

We would like to express our sympathy to the family of Ed Laird. May he find peace and happiness with our Lord Jesus in heaven.

Matthew 25 Lent | God's Invitation to Us: Christ-Like Radical Behavior

Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy

"Faith teaches us to see that every man and woman represents a blessing for me, that the light of God's face shines on me through the faces of my brothers and sisters." Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei

Every Lent the community of St. James participates in living the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Most of us know the Corporal Works of Mercy because 6 of the 7 are found in chapter 25 of the Gospel of Matthew as the story of The Last Judgement of the Nations. We give food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, and visit the imprisoned. The final Corporal Work of Mercy is to bury the dead.

We may be less familiar with the Spiritual Works of Mercy. These are to instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, admonish sinners, bear wrongs patiently, forgive offenses willingly, comfort the afflicted, pray for the living and the dead.

One way we can be open to God's Invitation this Lent is through weekly Corporal Works of Mercy donations and by taking a "Leap of Faith" Corporal and Spiritual Work of Mercy card from the pedestal on the altar. How is God inviting you to Christ-Like Radical Behavior during Lent this year?

Matthew 25 | God's Invitation to Us: Christ-Like Radical Behavior begins on Ash Wednesday March 6

Our Workcamp Mission Trippers Need Investors!

Our young people are going on a worthwhile trip to New Orleans this summer. They are in need of investors in their lives, in their faith and in the lives of the people they will serve. You already invest with your prayers, so consider purchasing stock the weekend of March 2-3 and 9-10. Whether it's $5, $20, or $100, you will be investing in the future of our church, our community and the world.

Any contribution is appreciated and tax deductible.

Thank you, as always, for your support!

A Note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

Has your doctor asked that you split pills into more than one dose? If he has, this process must be done carefully in order to ensure proper dosing. Below are some tips to help you safely split pills.

- Split as recommended: only split pills that your doctor or pharmacist says are OK to split. Most sustained- or extended-release medications-those with SR, ER, or XL in the name are not meant to be split (one common exception is metoprolol, Toprol XL, which can be split). Don't split drugs that have enteric coating
- Look for score marks: If a tablet is approved for splitting, the tablet will be marked to indicate where to cut it.
- Split one at a time: It may be tempting to tackle the entire bottle at once, but pills should only be split right before you take them. Split pills may be affected by heat, moisture and humidity.
- Use a splitter which can be found at most pharmacies
- Be realistic: if you are unable to consistently split your pills evenly, ask to have your prescription revised.

Special Lenten Book Study

Two small groups are scheduled to meet during Lent to do a book study of "The Screwtape Letters" by C.S. Lewis. The groups will begin on Monday, March 11th, and run for six

Transforming Men's Group:

New Study on the Gospel of John 6:30-7:30am Every Friday in the Great Room (the room with the fireplace)

Men, Dads, Husbands...we invite you to join us Friday mornings as we begin a study of the book of John for the next 8 -10 weeks. We are a group of fathers with kids ranging from wee littles to young adults. The study is for deepening our faith, whether as a beginner or experienced in the Word of God.

Our group's greatest success is that anyone can share on the topic, and it doesn't matter that it's your first time or 10th time with the group. We gather to encourage, support and share our faith experiences. We welcome you to join as we learn from the life of Jesus in the Gospel of John.

Questions? Contact Bryan Ramsey: ramseyb@archmil.org or 262.253.2915

Your investment in the life of a Workcamp mission tripper can produce experiences like this...

Everyone needs some kind of help. Even if you can't help everyone, you can make a positive difference in at least one person's life. Everyone deserves help. No one is exempt from God's love.

Invest in our young people by picking up a stock envelope at the Workcamp mission trip stock sale table after Mass next weekend or by calling the CF Office.

Any contribution is tax deductible.

St. James Community Gardens

You probably don't think of gardeners when you think about acts of defiance. But that's what it felt like when our core group of gardeners met recently. The night was cold and dark and we greeted each other by talking about the latest forecast of snow. Again!

We bravely defied the weather and the calendar and talked about seeds and plants and which tomato varieties might be best to plant this year. We made preliminary plans for our plant sale and questioned whether indoor plant lights lose their potency after time. We listened to the theory of growing plants in straw bales and reviewed the mantra that more is not necessarily better, at least when it comes to horse manure. A lesson we learned last year.

We eventually made our way out to our cars in the parking lot, knowing that if we have anything to say about it, there will be another year of organic garden produce provided to the Sussex Food Pantry. And yet a question lingers, was this meeting an act of defiance....or of hope?

If this is the year you have decided to join us in our efforts, now is the time to take the first step. Contact Paul using the information at the end of this notice. He will put you on the mailing list and answer any questions you might have.

And it's not too early to mark your calendars for our annual plant sale. We will have plants available for you to 'purchase' on the weekend of May 18th and 19th. More information will be coming soon.

If you have any questions or comments, feel free to contact Paul Schneider at (414-587-1202) or pschneider@wi.rr.com.
