February 3, 2019

4th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

"When you take an aging parent to the doctor, when you offer advice at a party, when you help with your child's field trip or invite a friend to stay at your cottage, these acts don't get counted in the statistics and annual reports. But they do play a vital role in your own emotional health and the warmth and closeness of your relationships."

John Stanley, Connected for Good: A Gameplan for a Generous Life

Messages from our PA

- St. Paul reminds us so eloquently this week that all of our ministries must be done out of LOVE. I have no doubt that the abundance of ministries which so many parishioners dedicate themselves to find their source in the realization of how much we are first loved by God through Jesus and the Holy Spirit, and also in the desire to share that love with one another and our neighbors, whoever they may be.
- I recently learned some details about one of the ministries in our parish that quietly goes on without a lot of fanfare or publicity, but surely with lots of love, and I'd like to share that information with you. The ministry I'm speaking of is our St. James Prayer Network.
- Perhaps you've noticed the brief article in the bulletin from time to time, accompanied by a graphic of the "Praying Hands", that invites those with prayer requests to send them to an email address. But did you know...?
 - that there are 49 individuals in the Prayer Network.
 - that when a prayer request is received, it is sent to all 49 persons with a notification of who requested the prayers, who the prayers are for, and a suggested prayer formula.
 - that you can submit prayer requests or join the Prayer Network by contacting Terri Grimmer at tmg1123@yahoo.com.
- In last weekend's Scripture passage from St. Paul, which served as a prelude to this week's ode to Love, Paul reminded us as the Body of Christ that "when one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy." We thank Terri Grimmer and the 49 intentional "pray-ers" for quietly and lovingly binding us together in Christ's healing Love.
- For several months now, I've been journeying with a young family of our parish, Justin and Ashley Hilgemann, and their 1-year-old son Derek. Derek has been at Childrens' Hospital for over 122 days, bravely fighting a tumor on his spine. Justin and Ashley have taken off of work the last 2 months to care for Derek at the hospital so any financial assistance that parishioners would like to offer is greatly appreciated and adds up. If you are so moved to help the Hilgemanns, contact Pastoral Associate Gerry Wolf for details...

Of course, every time I've visited the Hilgemanns, they always ask that parishioners keep them in prayer. Anyone who is interested can follow along on Derek's caringbridge site for updates:

www.caringbridge.org/visit/dhilgemann

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate, Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

CALLING ALL PRAYER PARTNERS & PRAYER WARRIORS:

Our young people NEED someone to pray for them, and with them at their "Prayer Breakout Nights" throughout the year (Feb. 10 & 12, Mar. 3 & 5.) It would be awesome to have you pray for them or be a prayer partner who could pray with them on those evenings. Please contact Bryan (262.253.2915 or ramseyb@archmil.org) to join in the spiritual battle for our young Church.

Be A Part Of Our Welcoming Community—The smiling, welcoming faces that greet you when you come to Mass are members of our Greeter Ministry. Whether you are a familiar face to our community, or would like to get to know more people of the parish, the Greeter Ministry would welcome you!

No special trainings or talents required, only that you arrive to church early enough to greet Mass-goers, and come manned with a smile and warm handshake!

"We have met so many new people during our years in the greeter ministry. Many people have stopped and visited with my daughters, and tell us how they have enjoyed watching them grow up. Volunteering for a church ministry isn't just about service to the community, a bigger part of it is how you allow that service to touch your life." - David & Lisa Topp

We welcome individuals, couples and families - it's a great way to get your children involved in ministry at an early age. New ministers of hospitality are needed at all Mass times, with special need to fill the 10:30am and 5:30pm Sunday Masses.

For more information or to sign up, contact Diana in the Parish Office, or the greeter scheduler, Lisa Topp at 414-531-1091 or email: toppthis@sbcglobal.net

Would you like to learn more about your faith?

Transforming Men's Group:

New Study Beginning on the Gospel of John 6:30-7:30am Every Friday in the Great Room (the room with the fireplace)

Men, Dads, Husbands...we invite you to join us Friday mornings as we begin a study of the book of John for the next 8-10 weeks. We are a group of fathers with kids ranging from wee littles to young adults. The study is for deepening our faith, whether as a beginner or experienced in the Word of God.

Our group's greatest success is that anyone can share on the topic, and it doesn't matter that it's your first time or 10th time with the group. We gather to encourage, support and share our faith experiences. We welcome you to join as we learn from the life of Jesus in the Gospel of John. Our study begins February 8th.

Weekend Retreat for MARRIED COUPLES (Not a silent retreat)

February 8 – 10, 2019

“Witnesses of the Redeemer”

Presented by the Redemptorist Retreat Team

Come and enjoy! During this retreat couples have the blessed opportunity to pray, share and reflect upon their commitment to one another and to the world. Our theme is the same as that of the silent weekend retreats, but with a “twist”. Jesus explains that the Kingdom of Heaven begins on Earth. In a unique manner married couples are called to imitate and follow the Most Holy Redeemer so that they may together grow in love and reach out to others in our wounded world. In that way, they find happiness in each other's company and in their lived vocation. On Saturday afternoon we will use the format of a video presentation with light discussion.

Check-in starts on Friday at 6:15 p.m., followed by a 7:30 p.m. welcoming and Mass.

There will be no evening meal served on Friday

Retreat ends on Sunday at 1:00 p.m., after Mass and lunch. Offering: $355.00 per couple covers room, board and materials.

A $50 nonrefundable deposit is requested.

The retreat will consist of presentations, daily Mass, opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, and time for spouses to talk and walk the grounds and pray.
