Matthew 25 | God's Invitation to Us: Christ-Like Radical Behavior

"This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; <sup>7</sup>but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin."

1 John 1:5-7

The light of faith "does not simply brighten the interior of the Church, nor does it serve solely to build an eternal city in the hereafter; it helps us build our societies in such a way that they can journey towards a future of hope."

Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei

LENT 2019: GOD INVITES US TO

CHRIST-LIKE

RADICAL BEHAVIOR

March 19, 2019
Dear Friends in Christ,

I was ordained a bishop in January 2001. A year later, in January 2002, the Boston Globe reported the first of many articles about clergy sexual abuse of minors. Never in my entire priesthood could I have imagined such a thing and yet, as a bishop for 18 years and your archbishop for the last nine, clergy sexual abuse has never been “off my radar.” It continues to be (and rightfully so) at the forefront of our pastoral ministry in the Church and in this archdiocese.

Let’s face facts; abuse survivors were not always believed or treated justly by the archdiocese. Whether it was clericalism, a misguided intent to protect the institutional Church or the desire to avoid scandal, regard for priest offenders often trumped care for victims. For this, I apologize to abuse survivors and to the faithful of this archdiocese. You deserved better.

Formal outreach to abuse survivors began in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in 1989, and the approach to working with abuse survivors began to change. Clinical Psychologist Dr. Liz Piasecki worked assisting abuse survivors, arranging for professional therapy and counseling. In 2002, that outreach was renewed, including the hiring of a victim assistance coordinator. In early 2004, the establishment of an independent mediation system provided financial compensation and other support.

But some offenders were not held accountable. In 2002, six priests with allegations of sexual abuse of a minor remained in active ministry. After the U.S. Bishops adopted the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in 2002, which includes a “zero tolerance” provision, those six priests were removed from ministry.

In 2002, I think most Catholics were simply shocked to read the news reports of priests abusing minors. As I said, during my priesthood, never could I have imagined such a thing. But today, I think most Catholics react in anger, an anger which I share. News of cover-ups from years past, and information that some dioceses haven’t adhered to the demands of the Charter, has broken people’s trust in the Church and its leaders, namely bishops.

Just one bishop’s errant actions (or inaction) is enough to taint every bishop. However, we know it hasn’t been just one bishop. Report after report has shown a pattern of mismanagement of the responsibility placed upon each of us as members of the Church hierarchy.

My responsibility in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee is to rebuild trust, informing people what has been done here in our archdiocese, without becoming defensive to the legitimate questions and valid concerns people have raised.

Since the Charter was adopted, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee has been rigorous in its adherence to its every aspect, and has passed every outside, independent Charter audit. Regardless, now is the time to, once again, renew our commitments in response to clergy sexual abuse of minors.

So, I come before you as a member of the wounded Body of Christ with the following pledge of transparency, and with a commitment to action for myself and for the Church entrusted to my care.

I renew my commitment of care and concern for those who have been survivors of clergy sexual abuse of a minor. I apologize to those who have been hurt by these priest-perpetrators, and by the Church’s inability to adequately respond. I apologize for any of my own actions that have been a detriment to healing. I promise to meet personally with any abuse survivor or family member who would like to meet with me. I will find a way for abuse survivors to tell their stories and be heard, and for those stories to be honored.

I pledge my commitment to zero tolerance. No priest with a substantiated allegation of sexual abuse of a minor can or will ever serve as a priest in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The names of diocesan priest offenders will continue to be posted on the archdiocesan website along with information about where they worked and files related to their abuse.

Any allegation of sexual abuse involving a minor will be immediately reported to civil or police authorities. All bishops, priests and lay parish/school staffs will follow the mandatory reporting laws of the State of Wisconsin.

I will expand the involvement of lay men and women on our Community Advisory Board and Priest Placement Board, and new members are in the process of being added to both groups. I will establish a process for reporting misconduct or mismanagement by bishops. I will support a national system implemented by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops to do the same.

I will direct my staff to cooperate with law enforcement, and meet with the Milwaukee County District Attorney to verify that clergy personnel files have been reviewed to ensure nothing has been missed in regard to criminal conduct on the part of any member of the clergy, including bishops.

As a sign of our repentance, and because of the pain caused to abuse survivors and their families with regard to the handling of sexual abuse allegations, I will change the name of the Archbishop Cousins Catholic Center, and ask the parish of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist to remove the name of Archbishop Rembert Weakland from its parish pastoral center. This is similar to decisions made by other bishops throughout the United States. I will remind parishes of our policy that buildings, centers, gym floors, cafeterias, etc., are not to be named after a priest or bishop, regardless of the esteem in which they may be held by the parish.

I will respectfully listen to the People of God in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, and hear their suggestions, concerns and reservations.

It will take time to restore the trust that has been lost, and our response may not always be perfect. I promise you my tireless efforts. Each step we take is progress, and if rooted in love, will bear great fruit. With these actions, we renew our commitment and call to

LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

Amazing Grace,

Most Reverend Jerome E. ListECKI

Messages from our PA

- The message of this weekend's readings conveys the constant, ever-reaching-out, love and mercy of God. In the Hebrew tradition, they use the word hesed, also spelled chesed, (pronounced kes-ed). It is a concept that is prevalent in the Old Testament, most often represented in the way God always gives the Israelites another chance after they turn away from the covenant relationship over and over and over... In the New Testament, chesed, God's loving kindness, becomes incarnate in the person of Jesus, and is more often expressed in the value of mercy, famously taught by Jesus in the unconditional love of the father-figure in today's Gospel story of the Prodigal Son. God wants nothing more than to reconcile (Paul uses the word five times in today's excerpt from his letter to the Corinthians!) with all of His children.
- Fathers Luke Strand and Enrique Hernandez will host the 2019 summer DeSales Vocation Camps at Saint Francis de Sales Seminary on the following dates. Please invite qualified young men of the parish to consider attending one of these camps. Those interested may register at Think-Priest or by contacting Emma Hegarty, 414-747-6437.
--Wojtyla Day, a day of adventure and community for high-school aged young men, takes place Saturday, April 13, 9:00am-5:30pm.
--Middle School Day Camps are scheduled for Saturday, June 15, 9:00am-3:00pm, and Thursday, July 25, 9:00am-3:00pm.
--High School Vocation Camp begins at 6:00pm on Sunday, June 16, and concludes at noon on Wednesday, June 19.
- This year's Saint Francis de Sales Seminary Lecture in Christian Ethics on Thursday, April 11, 2019, in St. Francis, will address the question - "What does it mean to be a Catholic neighbor in a polarized America?" The presenter, Dr. Hosffman Ospino, is an Associate Professor of Theology and Religious Education at Boston College's School of Theology and Ministry, and Director of Graduate Programs of Hispanic Ministry. He has been a principal investigator for national studies, measuring the impact of Hispanics in various Catholic structures in the United States, and serves on the boards of several national organizations. He has also authored and edited 13 books and more than 150 essays, academic and general. Vespers begin at 6:00pm on April 11, 2019 in Saint Francis de Sales Seminary's Christ King Chapel, followed by a 6:20pm reception in the Outer Commons. Dr. Ospino's lecture begins at 7:00pm in the Inner Commons. Please RSVP to 414-747-6463 or Christian Lecture.

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate, Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

During the visit, we can discuss any health issues and appropriate education can be provided. The Parish nurse can also help to connect you with local community resource information. These visits are provided on an as needed schedule, and are not intended to take the place of monitoring by your doctor, but as an additional resource during a difficult time.

If you do not wish to have a home visit, but are in need of health counseling or referrals to community resources, please feel free to contact the Parish Nurse for a phone consultation. If you or any parishioner you know could benefit from a visit with Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse, please feel free to contact her at glinskib@archmil.org, or 262-250-2663.

Anointing of the Sick

The Church has always prayed for the sick to be freed from pain and restored to health. Its pastoral care has its roots in the healing ministry of Jesus. The Lord was always aware of suffering and pain and responded with compassion and healing. The early Church continued Christ's healing ministry. In the Epistle of St. James we read, "Is there anyone who is sick among you? Let him summon the Priests of the Church. They should pray over him and Anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord."

The Health Ministry of St. James will be holding Anointing of the Sick at all four Masses on April 6 & 7.

We ask that if you would like to be Anointed that you sit in the first pew by the Sanctuary, which is reserved, your family may sit behind you in the reserved seating. Please stop at a table as you enter and our health ministers will give you a name tag to assist the Priests with knowing who is to be Anointed. It has become our tradition here at St. James to Anoint at our Masses so that the whole church community may take part in the healing ministry. All are welcome to assist with the laying on of the hands as our parishioners are being Anointed.

The Saturday April 6th 4:30 mass will be special indeed.
In addition to the anointing of the sick,
we will have two baptisms.
As a result, the mass will be longer than normal.
We ask your understanding.

ADORATION TAKES PLACE IN THE CHAPEL EVERY TUESDAY

8:30 AM—5:00 PM

Please consider joining us for prayer.
Adoration closes with praying the Rosary

St. James Community Gardens

Christ-Like Radical Behavior...You've probably noticed that phrase as our parish theme for Lent this year. Perhaps, in all modesty, we gardeners can lay claim to being ahead of the game by having advocated radical Christ-Like behavior for several years now.

Radical behavior implies changing a system, hopefully for the better. With that in mind, our gardeners don't want those who are in need to be limited to highly processed, sometimes less nutritious food. Instead we have been investing our time and talents to make sure that there is high quality, organic produce available to the clients of the CCOS Food Pantry here in Sussex.

Nor do we use chemicals which have been found to harm the environment just to give us a bigger yield in our gardens. We search for more natural ways to take care of the soil, plants and pollinators that work together to make our gardens successful.

Are you looking for ways to engage in Christ-Like Radical Behavior? We welcome new volunteers. Whether you are interested in supporting us by getting dirty (planting and harvesting), getting clean (washing and packing our produce), or perhaps helping us by praying for our success or making a donation to fund our cause, you and your efforts are most welcome. We hope you will find a way to join us in our radical behavior this year.

And it's not too early to mark your calendars for our annual plant sale. We will have plants available for you to 'purchase' on the weekend of May 18th and 19th. More information will be coming soon.

If you have any questions or comments, feel free to contact Paul Schneider at (414-587-1202) or pschneider@wi.rr.com.
