Matthew 25 | God's Invitation to Us: Christ-Like Radical Behavior

"Sometimes we are tempted to be that kind of Christian who keeps the Lord's wounds at arm's length. Yet Jesus wants us to touch human misery, to touch the suffering flesh of others. He hopes that we will stop looking for those personal or communal niches which shelter us from the maelstrom of human misfortune and instead enter into the reality of other people's lives and know the power of tenderness. Whenever we do so, our lives become wonderfully complicated and we experience intensely what it is to be a people, to be part of a people." Pope Francis,

Next weekend: I was in prison and you visited me...

BRING: items for inmates at the county jail, and for Franciscan Peacemakers Street Ministry and Clare Community residents: Bibles, Christian Literature, stationary, reader glasses Gas card, Walmart gift card, Gift card to McDonalds.

TAKE A LEAP OF FAITH:

Be open to God's Invitation by taking a Leap of Faith Corporal and Spiritual Work of Mercy card from the pedestal on the altar. How is God inviting you to Christ-Like Radical Behavior during Lent this year?

Messages from our PA

- Once again, the readings for this weekend underscore the great gifts of God's mercy, reconciliation, and new life in Christ. The story of the adulterous woman from John's Gospel reminds us that we all need second chances...and God is ready and waiting to give them to us! The recommended Psalm response for this weekend certainly expresses our response: "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."
- This year's Saint Francis de Sales Seminary Lecture in Christian Ethics on Thursday, April 11, 2019, in St. Francis, will address the question - "What does it mean to be a Catholic neighbor in a polarized America?" The presenter, Dr. Hosffman Ospino, is an Associate Professor of Theology and Religious Education at Boston College's School of Theology and Ministry, and Director of Graduate Programs of Hispanic Ministry. Vespers begin at 6:00pm in Saint Francis de Sales Seminary's Christ King Chapel, followed by a 6:20 pm reception in the Outer Commons. Dr. Ospino's lecture begins at 7:00pm in the Inner Commons. Please RSVP to 414-747-6463 for Christian Lecture.
- Divorced; Friday-Sunday, April 26-28, 2019; Schoenstatt Retreat Center in Waukesha This healing weekend is designed to help each participant embark upon a new phase of life. It is an opportunity for divorced persons to pause and examine their lives – their strong points and weaknesses, their hurts, disappointments, joys and frustrations. It is a weekend of involvement. The cost of $150.00 includes five meals and lodging for the entire weekend (financial assistance is available). Registration deadline is Wednesday, April 17th. For more information or a registration form, please the Office for Marriage and Family Life at 414-758-2201 or visit the following website: http://www.johnpaul2center.org/ Nazareth--Project/Separated-and-Divorced.htm

If you have questions about any of the items above, or have some feedback or an insight to share, Pastoral Associate, Gerry Wolf would be glad to hear from you at 262-253-2213, or at wolfg@archmil.org.

Ellacuria Reflection March 29, 2019

When we met with the Pastoral Council at Our Lady of the Holy Rosary parish in Ellacuria, I inquired if there is a Human Concerns type of ministry who cares for the poor, hungry and homeless. They responded by saying there is no need for this type of ministry as the community knows if someone is in need and the community takes care of them.

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and a communal life. All who believed were together and had all things in common. Acts 2:42, 44

This realization of community where the people of Ellacuria take care of each other was quite moving. The 600 plus residents have experienced so many "death and resurrection" realities – from fleeing to the refugee camps in Honduras, to repopulating to a homeland devastated by the military forces to the daily fear of further repression. These courageous people have raised themselves with true love by caring for each other. These relationships are God moments and our face-to-face encounters with them were God moments for us as well.

I was aware of my initial dis-ease as we approached the gate for our flight to San Salvador, the capital of El Salvador. I noticed that most of those sitting in the waiting area were all Hispanics, looking different than I, speaking a different language. Slight fear arose at the realization that I am in the minority around people who are not like me. This dis-ease disappeared as we developed relationships and encountered each other on a human level. Relationship is so powerful.

Further, I realized how my reality of life is just a small perspective in a massive world of humanity. People live their lives in their own realities and become the best versions of themselves in entirely unique ways far different from my world view. It caused me to open vastly my appreciation of the uniqueness of humanity.

Finally, I returned home with an enormous sense of gratitude. Grateful for what we have and an awareness that we have too much. I was aware how this overwhelming sense of gratitude lead to calmness, a calmness that I experience at times in meditation. Gratefulness and calmness seem to have an intimate connectedness. I am grateful for this gift.

A note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

We all know that brushing our teeth daily is important for maintaining good oral health. But did you know that this routine is also good for your heart?

A study found that those who follow the recommendation of brushing twice a day for at least two minutes each time had decreased risk of cardiovascular events such as heart attack, stroke, hospitalization for heart failure or dying of a cardiovascular cause.

Another study found that gum disease appears to be associated with high blood pressure and also interferes with medications to treat this condition.

In addition to brushing your teeth thoroughly at least twice a day, it is recommended that you floss daily and have regular visits to the dentist. While brushing, you should set a timer or use an electric toothbrush that has a built-in two-minute timer to ensure you're spending enough time on this important step.

From Mayo Clinic Health Letter (April 2019).

Memory Café at Pauline Haas Public Library

On April 15, 2019, the Pauline Haas Public Library, in Sussex, will be hosting a Memory Café from 3:00-4:30 p.m. This is a social gathering to connect those with early-stage memory loss and their care-partner with conversation, activities, and refreshments. The topic will be "Around the Kitchen Table", be prepared to sample favorite family recipes and learn their history. Also, you can discuss food traditions and favorite dishes. Make sure to bring your appetite.

Home Visits from our Parish Nurse

The Parish Nurse offers visits to our homebound parishioners to provide spiritual support along with health advocacy. During the visit, we can discuss any health issues and appropriate education can be provided. The Parish nurse can also help to connect you with local community resource information. These visits are provided on an as needed schedule, and are not intended to take the place of monitoring by your doctor, but as an additional resource during a difficult time.

If you do not wish to have a home visit, but are in need of health counseling or referrals to community resources, please feel free to contact the Parish Nurse for a phone consultation.

If you or any parishioner you know could benefit from a visit with Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse, please feel free to contact her at glinskib@archmil.org, or 262-250-2663.

St. James Community Gardens

Researchers seem to be every where these days.....investigating everything from what foods that were once bad to eat are now good for you, to researching whether listening to Mozart makes babies smarter. Some research that caught our eye this week deals with the fact that people who set out bird feeders in their yards are more aware of the natural environment in general. Actually that seems to confirm common sense. And we think that bird lovers are not the only ones who find reasons to pay attention to the world around us. Gardeners do too.

Now that spring is here, at least according to the calendar, gardeners are paying more attention to the weather and other signs of spring. How much sunlight is there? Is the average temperature rising? How damp is the soil? Are there buds coming up? What birds have returned? Our list is long if not endless. But in addition to noticing these things, we appreciate them. There is a deep appreciation for the miracle of new birth and growth that occurs each year. We do what we can to support it, but all of these things come from a power beyond us. And we marvel at this yearly renewal of creation. It's one of the side benefits of this hobby of ours.

We hope you have marked your calendars for our annual plant sale. We will have plants available for you to 'purchase' on the weekend of May 18th and 19th. More information will be coming soon.

If you have any questions or comments, feel free to contact Paul Schneider at (414-587-1202) or pschneider@wi.rr.com.
