AN UPDATE ON OUR MISSION FAMILY—THE GLAFCKES

Dear All-Star Monthly Mission Partners,
Peace and Joy in Jesus Christ to you all.

We have been stateside since the middle of July. This call to live as itinerant missionaries is rarely easy or convenient, but we have been abundantly blessed by Divine appointments and the generous hospitality of many. Our bodies, minds and spirits are being restored and reinvigorated. Thank you Jesus!

Over the past few weeks we have sought guidance about returning to Haiti. When we prayed whether all, some, or none of us would return, we heard the Lord asking all of us to remain in Louisiana for now. This is unexpected and difficult. Not only did we leave our home in L'Asile intact with many of our personal belongings, more importantly we left without saying goodbye to our fellow missionary teammates, Haitian helpers and friends. This was not our plan. A few days ago Josephine read this passage in her Breakthrough Bible: "I alone know the plans I have for you, plans to bring you prosperity and not disaster, plans to bring about the future you hope for. Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me and I will answer you. You will seek me and you will find me because you will seek me with all your heart."

- Jeremiah 29:11-13

We have been advised to use this next season in Louisiana to allow all of us to process and heal from the trials and tribulations we experienced in Haiti. This Sunday when we attended mass, the gospel choir sang boldly, "Enter in! Enter in! Enter in!" We hear the Lord asking us to enter into this time fully, without reservations, shame or doubt. He is asking for our whole hearts to be strengthened and made new.

Our call as missionaries remains true. We are on mission no matter where we are on the globe. As Christians we are called to share the merciful Love and Truth of Jesus Christ to each person we encounter. We invite you to come visit us here in Louisiana to see firsthand how the Lord leads us day by day.

We are humbled and grateful for the constant outpouring of prayers and financial support to us. We are living simply in gospel poverty and rely daily on donations for our family to be fed, clothed and our minivan to be maintained. This vocation comes from the Lord and we have seen His provision for our family because of YOUR generosity.

While we were in Haiti, our family lived on $1500 a month. As you might expect, the cost of living in the United States is considerably higher. Please spread the word that we are looking to add to our group of faithful monthly supporters:

We have witnessed and experienced ourselves the real power of intercessory prayer. Please send us your prayer intentions via email or phone: mkglafcke@familymissionscompany.com or 414-378-7248.

And one of the blessings we are counting is the ability to send and receive mail again!

HEALTH MINISTRY

A note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

Often times medications, such as Prilosec or Nexium (PPIs), are prescribed as a way to stop heartburn in its tracks, but you can also try some non-medication tricks to decrease the severity of heartburn. Of course, you should follow your doctor's recommendations, but utilizing the following tips may keep your medication needs to a minimum.

- Maintain a healthy weight-Your extra pounds put pressure on your abdomen, which causes the acid in your stomach to back up into your esophagus.
- Eat smaller meals-When you overeat at a meal, it puts extra pressure on the muscle that keeps food from backing up from the stomach to the esophagus.
- Avoid trigger foods-Common foods that increase stomach acid includes: fatty or fried foods, alcohol, caffeine, chocolate, and peppermint.
- Don't lie down after eating-Eat your last meal of the day 3 to 4 hours before you go to the bed.
- Elevate the head of your bed-Put sturdy blocks under the head of your bed to raise it 6 to 8 inches, or try a foam block between your mattress and box spring. Don't use too many pillows; however, this can put too much pressure on your stomach.
- Don't smoke-Smoking decreases the functional ability of the muscle that keeps food from backing up from your stomach into your esophagus.

St. James Community Gardens

At the beginning of the season, those tiny plants are so cute. They peek out of the soil, with their little leaves reaching for the sun. They hold such promise. And then they grow, and in the case of our zucchini they grow and grow and grow! If you have taken a look at the garden on the south side of church you will see our zucchini plants. They have leaves the size of large dinner plates. The vines are crawling across the walkways and entangling other plants. Good thing our growing season isn't much longer or we would have the Zucchini Plants That Ate St. James.

But the season is coming to an end. Some of the beds have already been cleared. We've planted some buckwheat as a winter cover crop in a few of the beds. The tomatoes are looking scraggly and the potatoes have been dug up. The only plants really hanging on are the kale, and they have been known to outlast a frost or two.

As the season winds down, the jobs diminish as well. We are harvesting and cleaning and delivering our veggies to the food pantry instead of digging and planting and trimming. The clients at the food pantry are always grateful for our donations which are available because of your support. On behalf of them...thank you.

If you have any comments, questions or suggestions about the gardens you can share them with Paul at (414) 587-1202 or email him at: pschneider@wi.rr.com

HUMAN TRAFFICKING COMMITTEE
- UPDATE

Can you believe we are already well in the month of September? Summer whizzes by and we are looking forward to a new season of Autumn. When spring arrives we feel a sense of renewal, of new life. In fall, we re-evaluate what we've done in the summer, did we get it all done, did we see everyone we wanted to see? It is a time to be thankful for all our blessings, our family, friends and safe travels we've had along our way. You may have said to yourself "I think I'm ready to help". How can you help without getting over involved you ask? Read on....

Many of you have purchased the wonderful soaps, creams and candles that our made by human trafficking victims. Gifts for the Journey is always looking for new places to display and grow their business. Their business directly supports victims of human trafficking as they work toward their goal of housing up to 9 people trafficked. If you have a business or an idea of a spot that might be a great place to display their soaps, candles and creams, please let us know so we can reach out and help them.

Also, we have hotline cards in English and Spanish, another easy way to help spread the word about human trafficking and perhaps help someone in the process! See, that was easy!

If you are looking for other ways to volunteer and help those trafficked, please contact djschneider86@gmail.com

IMPORTANT DATES:

Don't forget, Gifts for the Journey will be at St James on October 12 & 13th selling their soaps after each mass.

Franciscan Peacemakers 24th Anniversary Fundraiser will be at Good Shepherd on October 3rd from 6-8 pm, celebrating the opening of their new retail and hospitality center coming soon at 3333 W. Lisbon Ave.

Our next meeting is October 2nd, 2019 from 6 - 7 pm....
If God is calling you to help in some way, please consider joining our committee!
