Messages from our PA

- Since the announcement of my pending move to St. Gabriel's, I've been having many conversations with parishioners about how the decision came about, what's going to happen at St. James, etc. Let me address some of the frequently asked questions I've heard:

--Is there some other reason I decided to leave that I'm not sharing? NO!!! Please do not surmise that there is any back-story or unspoken reasons for my decision. As I have explained over and over, I have had other occasions in my life where the Holy Spirit unexpectedly presented me with a call that led me to a role in ministry that I never anticipated or intended. That is how my vocation in parish ministry began 30+ years ago. That is how I came to serve here at St. James. And this is another one of those times. Please squelch any rumors you may hear...

--Will the parish hire someone to take my place? YES!!! However, how long that will take is uncertain, and, what roles and responsibilities that person serves will probably look different than how I served. This moment in the history of St. James allows an opportunity to assess needs, address priorities, and hire someone who can serve the parish in a new way. I had a meeting this past Wednesday with Deacon Sandy and Terri Weber to go over the aspects of my ministry that are most important and must not be abandoned. But the transition process could take some time, so it may be several months, or even longer, before a new person is discerned. And when it does, it will look different than how I functioned, just as there were changes when I was hired to take Daryl Olszewski's place.

--What's going to happen in the meantime? ST. JAMES PARISH WILL CARRY ON!!! One of the first aspects of St. James parish that I experienced when I arrived was how many parishioners are dedicated to an amazing amount of ministries. That will continue. I expect that staff members will pick up some of the slack temporarily. I am confident that parishioners I have worked with will step up to keep important ministries stable and ongoing. And I myself will stay involved in a few ministries, i.e. the Fall SOAL program, the planning for the Feb. 1st "No Regrets" Mens' Conference, and the annual Memorial Day prayer service.

- This leads me to my weekly reflection on the Scriptures... There were two lines that especially spoke to me about how all of us can maneuver through this time of change... Paul's exhortation to Timothy: "...stir into flame the gift of God that you have..." and the apostles' plea to our Lord: "Increase our faith." I am praying that the Spirit of Truth, the Advocate, the Paraclete, whom Jesus promised to send to accompany the church, will keep the fire of God's love, mercy, presence and power active in each of our hearts and our lives. With that happening, there is nothing to fear. We just keep walking with Jesus, our risen and living friend and Lord, at our side, showing us the way!

Pastoral Associate, Gerry Wolf

Are you called to be Catholic? Do you know someone who might be?

There are lots of reasons why people choose to become Catholic.

- Maybe you are married to someone who is Catholic and are ready to explore this faith further.
- Maybe you have friends or relatives who were married in the Catholic Church, or you attended a funeral and were moved by that experience and now want to learn more.
- Maybe you know or admire someone who is Catholic and you want to explore the faith more deeply.

If you are curious about the Catholic faith, we have a special process designed to help you learn more. It's called RCIA. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Joining the RCIA process does not commit you to joining the Catholic Church. It is a process to help you explore what the Catholic Church has to offer.

If you choose to complete the entire RCIA process, you will become a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church. Come to an informal gathering on October 3rd from 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. in the great room to talk about what it means to be Catholic.

If you would like to find out more you can contact Sue at devinesimons@archmil.org or 253-2904.

The FALL ART & ENVIRONMENT Committee

needs help adding color to the worship and gathering space. Adding color will be on Saturday, October 12 at 8:30 a.m.

This is a good way to meet new people.
All are welcome!

Scripture Reflection

On Thursdays at 9:00 a.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. we meet for one hour to look at the upcoming Sunday Readings. These sessions are held in the great Room. It is a great way to prepare for Sunday liturgies and understand God's word in a deeper way. All are welcome and no experience is necessary. For more information, contact Sue at devinesimons@archmil.org or at 253-2904.

HEALTH MINISTRY

A note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

Having a Y chromosome is not an excuse for unhealthy lifestyle choice! Only 30% of a man's overall health is determined by his genetics.

Did you know?

- Men live 4.4 years less than women
- Men live the last 11 years of their life in poor health
- Men are more likely to die from heart diseases at earlier ages
- Men are at a significantly higher risk of dying from liver disease
- 80% of spinal cord injuries occur in young men
- 70% of developmental and learning disabilities affect boys
- Men have an increased risk of dying from diabetes
- The top 3 reasons for reduced lifespan in men are cardiovascular disease, suicide and motor vehicle accidents

So men, make sure you are taking good care of your body. Speak with your primary care provider about all your health concerns.

Flu Shots

St. James' Health Ministry has partnered with Sussex Pick n Save to offer flu shots here at St. James on Sunday Oct 13 from 8:00am until 12:00 noon in The Great Room. Standard and high dose (senior) flu shots will be available.

Most insurance plans and Medicare cover the cost of the flu shot, so take the time to stop by and get yourself protected. Paperwork for insurance reimbursement is available in the Great Room now and will also be available during the flu shot clinic on Oct 13.

If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Nurse, Brigitte Glinski, glinskib@archmil.org or 262-250-2663.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING COMMITTEE - UPDATES

INTERNET SAFETY:

The World Wide Web is a dangerous place for children! Please consider safety precautions for your children if they are given a phone as a gift or to get ahold of them, or vice versa. Children can very easily get into the wrong sites and end up being trafficked. It happens more often than you would think! In this day and age, parents are giving their children phones at very early ages, be aware that predators, stalkers or identity thieves could be on the other end.

Talk to your children about staying safe online, not to share identifying information or tell a stranger they are alone or want to meet them, don't post photos as they can never be removed even disappearing messages stay forever on the site servers.

Talking to them about internet safety is important and you want them to hear this from you, not the stranger on the other end. Stay connected with their accounts, check their downloaded Apps constantly. Some to be aware of are: WhatsApp, Facebook Messenger, Viber, Line, WeChat, MeetMe, Voxer, Tik Tok, YouTube, Tellonym, Bigo Live, IMVU, Houseparty, Tinder, Askfm, kik, Snapchat, Whisper, Tumblr, etc. and there are also Icon Hiding Apps! As fast as I write this, more are probably being created!

Let's keep working together to keep children safe!

If you are looking for ways to learn more about human trafficking and what is being done, please reach out to Debra Schneider at djschneider86@gmail.com.

Also consider attending an event:

Sunday October 6th, 12:00 PM

Our Saviors Lutheran Church,
W299N5782 County Rd. E, Hartland,

A Conversation About Trafficking in Our Community

Saturday/Sunday October 12 & 13 - Gifts for the Journey will be here to sell their candles, soaps and lotions after all masses, a great time to stock up early for the upcoming holidays! All proceeds go to help trafficked victims.

PRAYER NETWORK - If you have a prayer request, please send an email to Terri Grimmer at: tmg1123@yahoo.com

St. James Community Gardens

We're done, or at least close to being done. The beds are being cleared out, the cattle fencing to support various vines is coming down. We are done pushing aside leaves trying to find zucchini. We are finished checking whether or not that ripe tomato is food pantry worthy or is hiding a nibble from a chipmunk. The potato beds have been turned over and the potatoes have been delivered. No more looking for beans that hide so well that the next picker following you wonders if you picked any at all. In fact we just pull the bean plants out, hold them upside down and easily spot the beans as they hang down.

Some of the plants will stay until frost...the marigolds add a bit of color to the beds. And some will stay after the frost...kale actually gets sweeter after a bit of cold. Our spring dreams are now memories and we prepare for the winter rest. Soon the challenges of the year will fade away and we will start to plan for another season. It is very satisfying to reflect on all we've been able to do this year. Our success is due in a large part to your support. Thank you!

If you have any comments, questions or suggestions about the gardens you can share them with Paul at (414) 587-1202 or email him at: pschneider@wi.rr.com
