HOLLY DAYS

December 7th, 4:00—7:30 pm

December 8th, 8am—12:30 pm

What is Holly Days? Holly Days is an annual event at St. James that is fun for all ages! It is a time for food, festivities and fun all in the name of building community and fundraising for our wonderful parish. The event takes place on Dec. 7th and 8th after all masses and includes a Saturday Supper, Bake Sale, Theme Basket Raffle, Silent Auction, Book and Movie sale and an AMAZING Secret Santa Workshop where kids can shop for new gifts for mom, dad, siblings and grandparents. Santa and Mrs. Claus will be at the event, so make sure to bring your cell phone and get those great family photos

This year's Saturday Supper will consist of homemade lasagna, garlic bread and tossed salad. We are looking for parishioners to be "Helping Hands" once again and donate the ingredients to make the lasagna. Please take a 'hand' off of Santa's beard in the Gathering Area after mass. Ingredients should be dropped off prior to Dec. 5th. Non-perishable items can be dropped in the Holly Days donation boxes, perishable items should be labeled "Holly Days" and be placed in the fridge in the Community Center.

New this year, the St. James Holly Days Silent Auction will be online! All items will be available for viewing during Holly Days, but bidding will be online to enable all parishioners to bid even if they are unable to attend the event. Please check out the auction site at: www.32auctions.com/StJames-HollyDays2019.

A note from Brigitte Glinski, Parish Nurse

The holidays are once again upon us, time to eat, drink and be merry. But what if you are diabetic, how can you still enjoy all the yummy foods that the holidays bring?

Plan ahead; make sure that you think about what time your holiday meal will be served. If you will not be eating at a regularly scheduled meal time, and are on medications to lower your blood glucose, make sure to have a snack (check with your healthcare provider about this.) Try to be active, if you are eating more than usual, take a walk, or play outside with your children or grandchildren. Make healthier versions of your favorite holiday foods, steam green beans instead of making green bean casserole, use light or fat-free ingredients instead of regular. Be more selective, many of our holiday favorites are loaded with carbohydrates: potatoes, stuffing, rolls and bread, and of course desserts. Don't feel that you have to eat everything that is out on the table, try to load up on vegetables or choose smaller portions of the carbohydrate loaded foods. Make sure you keep your carbohydrate intake like a regular day.

When it comes to dessert, the Holidays can be especially tough for Diabetics. Holidays are special occasions, so enjoy a small serving of dessert. Substitute your small portion of dessert for another carbohydrate you would enjoy during your meal, for example, skip the dinner roll. Offer to make a dessert that will be healthier, you can use sugar substitutes, replace oil with applesauce, or cut down on sugar and increase spices.

Remember that the holidays are not just about the food, but about family and the meaning of the holiday.
