Welcome Jerry Przekora

Hello! First of all, I just wanted to thank you all for your very warm welcome to the parish last weekend. I already have had the pleasure of meeting a few of you already, and I know St. James will be a wonderful community to get to know this year! As Fr. John already mentioned, I am in my 2nd year of formation (for the Diocese of Gaylord, MI) at Sacred Heart School of Theology in Hales Corners.

I first thought of priesthood when I was much younger, but “life got in the way” as the saying goes...I obtained a BBA in Business Leadership, and worked in retail management for several years before priestly formation. I also was a caretaker for my parents (especially my father) in recent years. These experiences, along with volunteering at my parish, and a deepening relationship with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, all helped solidify my journey to finally enter seminary.

It is an honor for me to spend some of my journey here at St. James this year!

Vincentian Spirituality

On September 24th at the 10:30 mass, the St. James Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will remember our deceased members since our reinstatement in 2006. These spiritual friends of ours are: Kathy Rieck, Jerry Gnad, Ray Schoedl, Penney Liedtke, Betty Rooney, Marie Loden, Deacon Mike Rooney, Barb Jackamonis, Paul Stevens, and Mike McElwee.

We cherish having worked with these saints in our community focusing on 1) our spiritual growth together, 2) being the face of Christ to the needy, and 3) developing cohesive friendships among our members and those we help.

Considering we have lost so many members, we invite all parishioners to consider joining our group of Vincentians as it is truly a ministry where Christianity becomes action - not mere words. There is no hypocrisy nor pretense when facing the real suffering and needs of human beings who desperately need us. The home visit is a concrete ministry that makes Christ three dimensional. It becomes a mutual vision of Christ.

Please join us by inquiring how to begin this ministry by calling 262-923-6437 or 262-224-4281.
