Everyday Stewardship

I have to smile when I read in St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, "Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another." I smile because I know that in today's world few people owe nothing to anyone. We have credit card debt, mortgages, student loans, car loans, and new loans to consolidate old loans. It would seem that we actually owe everything to everyone.

These debts are of this world. I am pretty sure no one residing in heaven is still making mortgage payments. We have created contracts in this world to make possible certain transactions of goods, services, and shelter. But there is one thing that we naturally owe one another and that lasts longer than our time on earth: love.

You do not need to take out a loan to have more love to give. There also is no limit to the love you have been given to share. However, it is the one gift that we sometimes treat with the least respect. We hold back love due to sins of pride, prejudice, and apathy. We distort and manipulate love for our own gain and selfish desires. We can find ourselves placing more importance on the things for which we have taken out loans than the love that is eternal.

I am trying the best I can to get to a point where I no longer owe anything to banks and mortgage lenders. I don't want to leave this world owing anyone for the earthly things I had in this life. But even more importantly, I realize the shame it would be to leave people behind that didn't get enough love from me. There is nothing greater than love.

Fridays | 6:15 AM | St. James Great Room

Season Kickoff:

September 11: "Apostles of a New Springtime"

Join us for a new season—Apostles of the New Springtime: an interactive men's program focused on the development of male leadership in the modern world. It combines the best research from science, Catholic teaching and wisdom of the Saints to develop a vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and society. Men are invited to discern and find their mission field. We'll be sent forth as a light to the nations as we encounter the Luminous Mysteries of Christ, counting on the power of the same Spirit who was poured out at Pentecost and who impels us still today to start anew. Sign up at www.mygoodshepherd.org/adult for the group tailored just for you as a man of God, husband, father and brother; then, join us Fridays at St. James. Questions? Contact Bryan: (262) 345-3904

OCIA

Are you called to be Catholic? Do you know someone who might be?

There are lots of reasons why people choose to become Catholic. Maybe you are married to someone who is Catholic and are ready to explore this faith further. Maybe you know or admire someone who is Catholic, and you want to explore the faith more deeply.

If you are curious about the Catholic faith, or would like to reconnect after years of absence, we have a special process designed to help learn more. It's called OCIA. OCIA stands for Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Joining the OCIA process does not commit you to joining the Catholic Church. It is a process to help you explore what the Catholic Church has to offer. If you choose to complete the entire OCIA process, you will become a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church.

If you would like to find out more, you can contact Sue at Sdevine-simon@stjames-parish.com or 253-2904 or attend our first Inquiry session on Sunday, September 27 at 9:20 a.m. in the Great Room (Meeting room in church located behind the fire place).
